LOOKAROUND

July 2015

Issue 334

Donation £1

A warm welcome to everyone, especially our visitors and we hope you enjoy our little corner of England. Please visit events that appear in Lookaround and give them your support.

This month is only 92 Pages and we know that there is a lot more going on out there than appears within our pages. Many organisations have appointed a correspondent to submit things to Lookaround and we are able to give advice on this if required.

Dennis & Jacky Whicker

Sedbergh & District

SEDBERGH PARISH COUNCIL

This report covers items from the monthly meeting held on the 11th June 2015. The next Parish Council meeting will be on Thursday 9th July 2015 at 7.30pm in the People's Hall, Sedbergh.

PARISH COUNCILLOR VACANCY

Notices will be displayed in connection with Co-Opting a new Member to Sedbergh Parish Council.

The closing date will be the 3rd July 2015.

POST 16 TRANSPORT

Councillor Nick Cotton gave an update regarding Post 16 Transport arrangements for the area. The 502 Service to Kendal has been agreed and a new timetable published. Transport for Kirkby Lonsdale has also now been confirmed and Cumbria County Council/Queen Elizabeth School will contact parents with further details soon. Sedbergh Parish Council recognise that there are still concerns over transport for families in rural areas, as well as financial implications and worries over the extended day for some students. It was noted that Tim Farron MP has recently lodged an Early Day motion with regard to new transport funding for rural school pupils.

PLANNING

The Planning Committee Report detailed several applications and related matters, full details can be found on the Parish Council Website.

FINANCE

Sedbergh Parish Council's Final Accounting Statements for 2014/2015 were approved.

PROPOSED SKATE/BMX PARK

Sedbergh Community Trust has made an application to Sport England. Whilst Sedbergh Parish Council continue to support the project in principal, further consideration needs to be made to demand, likelihood of planning consent, the view that a BMX track might be more in keeping with surroundings, ongoing costs and insurance implications. Also noted, was the possibility of inviting representation from younger people in Sedbergh for detailed feedback/ thoughts/analysis. A meeting of Sedbergh Community Trust and Sedbergh Parish Council will be arranged.

Let's celebrate - Local Cooks!

Each week from Monday to Friday starting July 6th Weavers Cafe will feature a tried and tested recipe by someone living in Sedbergh.

If you would like to share your family favourite or dinner party special – phone Jenny on 21159.
Contributors of recipes chosen will be invited for a free meal for 2

Margaret Denton July 6 - 10

Pork, Leek and Potato Bake - loved by families

Anne Jones July 13 - 17

Bobotie – mince with spices, prunes and apricots

Wendy Fraser-Urquhart July 20 - 24

Fish in Curry Sauce – quick and easy

Valerie Cann July 27 - 31

Turkey and Apricot Bake for a special supper.

Weavers@FarfieldMill is open daily 10-5 - Free entry to café and shop
Garsdale Rd, Sedbergh, LA10 5LW. www.farfieldmill.org 015396 21159

Other matters discussed included further repairs to the boundary walls at Queens Gardens, restoration of the Jubilee Fountain, rain water capture at the public toilets, additional advertising for the Wednesday market, improvements to the garden of the Information Centre and the approval of a grant towards this year's Sheepfest event.

Please note that members of the public are invited to our monthly Meetings where, as always, they are able to comment at 8.30 pm. Please also note that a full reference copy of all documents relating to meetings is held at 72 Main Street in the Parish Council Office.

Janey Hassam – Clerk

CAN YOU HEAR IT?

After a particularly volatile and bruising Parish Meeting in May, the stalwarts of Garsdale Parish Council have taken advantage of a meeting-free month (PC meets every 3rd Thursday bimonthly) to retire into their lairs, to lick their wounds and gird their loins, ready to sally forth with renewed vigour and enthusiasm to tackle the issues of the parish.

The imminent worries are the private water risk assessments and Post 16 transport. An entreaty to SLDC to allow a better informed local to be employed to carry out the risk assessments, rather than apparently uninformed and clueless Tobin employees, has yet to be agreed.

Further pressure is being applied to SLDC but in the meantime it has been reported that Tobin are still approaching residents. Until Council has received a satisfactory reply, the suggestion is to hold tight.

Similarly, no satisfactory proposal has been submitted by SLDC to settle their legal obligations to provide transport for 16 to 18 year olds to their colleges for compulsory higher education. Why SLDC are dragging their feet over this is a puzzle.

Presently pupils are paying about £2.00 per day for transport and the "savings" made by withdrawing will be minimal. Why not just admit a mistake has been made, reinstate the transport and avoid a costly and humiliating court appearance?

The main road through the Dale continues to deteriorate. As an "A" road, it's condition really is appalling. Again the response from Highways at SLDC is hardly deafening.

Parishioners may help by contacting the Highways Hotline to report all concerns, the more the merrier. Council will continue to apply similar pressure.

Although water continues to flow cleanly at the village hall, unfortunately, it also continues to flow via a leak under the floor. Presently this is being isolated and volunteers are being lined up on a rota basis to lay under the floor and stick a finger in the pipe to stem the flow until a more permanent solution is found.

But on the other hand, life carries on as normally as possible in Garsdale. Summer is now with us and we all look forward to some sunshine. The sheep have been moved to higher pastures and the meadows have been left to grow, ready to produce silage for the winter. So, on a quiet day, away from the roar of the motorbikes, shut your eyes and listen. Can you hear it? That sweet sound of grass growing.

Our next meeting is on Thursday 17th July at the Village Hall at 7.30pm.

Sedbergh and have agreed with Dent to clarify the position of Fibre Garden (Broadband) and its way forward and to consult SLDC how it intends to resolve the funding of the change in wording for the six Tourist information signs on the M6, close to junction 37. If an impact on the Tourist traffic is forthcoming for this year a solution will have to be found as of yesterday.

The improvements to the People's Hall at Sedbergh is dramatic and great credit must go to Dr. Gina Barney and her committee. The highlight of the Sedbergh meeting were the Crocodile Tears spilt by our County Councillor over the decision to charge 16 - 18 year olds where they require School Transport.

Local Authorities have a choice of where they can spend their monies. Sadly the local Authorities both District and County in this Area find their support in Urban Environments and subsequently it is Rural Communities, who suffer.

COUNCILLOR CORNER

Last week both Sedbergh parish and Kirkby Lonsdale town councils met and the Appleby Horse Fair was not brought up at either. That must be a first for the June meetings! The management of the whole event now seems to be in much more responsible hands and seven years of vigilance seem to be paying off. The "no nonsense" approach of our Police and Crime Commissioner, who made a bee-line to me for a debrief at a councillor event last week has greatly helped. Another strand has been the improved horse passport legislation which makes it much more difficult for unregistered horses to appear, be traded and disappear. The scrap metal trade has also been transformed, do you remember the dealing station on the side of the A65, just about the North Yorkshire, Cumbria border?

There has been relatively little activity on South Lakeland as the council settles down from the discontinuity of the national and local elections. For the first time in many years last month's Planning Committee was cancelled. This was partly because new members of the committee have to go through an induction process but mainly it was for want of business. This follows a pattern going back at least as far as 1992. In the run up to national elections potential developers refrain from submitting applications until the election result is known. If past experience is anything to go by now it is over and there is a stable majority government likely to remain in place for five years there will be nine or twelve months where the number of applications will greatly exceed the long term trend.

I missed much of the run up to Appleby Horse Fair as I was one of the group who travelled over to Zreče to celebrate ten years of our two towns being twinned. As always we were made very welcome. It will be a great pleasure to welcome the mayor, Boris and the Slovenian ambassador to Sedbergh at the end of this month. As an elected mayor with a council behind him this is a model which is being rolled out throughout England, even in communities which rejected the idea not five years ago. I can see both good and bad in the mechanism: good for leadership, not so good for representation of dissenting views.

TIM FARRON MP

This month I have been rather distracted by the campaign for leadership of the Liberal Democrats. The result will be announced on the 16th July and once that is out of the way, whatever the result, my time should get back a bit more to being my own. The key thing is that I hope you see my campaign to become leader as less about losing my time here in Westmorland and Lonsdale and more about being able to use my time to campaign more widely for the things that affect us here.

Already I have taken the opportunity that the greater level of media attention has brought to start to campaign against fracking in this country. I was really pleased when the last government announced that it was banning fracking from the National Parks and other areas of outstanding natural beauty but I think that we should go much further. There are too many risks attached to fracking and it seems to me that allowing it to happen is just further delaying our much needed move to adopt a low carbon approach to running the country.

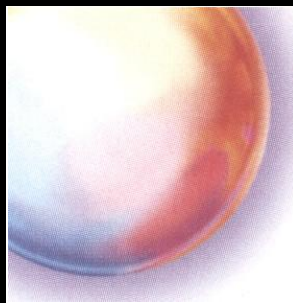

My wider platform has also allowed me to more publicly attack the current Government's plans to force housing associations to sell off their houses. I am really proud of the number of affordable houses that we have seen built in the area since we started working on the issue. But there is so much more that we need to do. The number of people come up to me in the street or talk to me about housing issues at my surgeries shows how desperately we need affordable housing. I am really proud that South Lakeland District Council has announced that one of their key targets is to build 1000 houses on affordable rents. The very thought that the current Government is proposing to make it so that these not just can but must be sold off at some point in the future, taking us back again to the point where there is not enough affordable housing around and even more needs to be built is madness. I can see no way that this can be justified and am taking every opportunity I can to ensure that the Government hears this message.

Of course there are many more things I am raising during my speeches around the country in the leadership hustings (you can find quite a few of them on my Facebook page), good schools, transport and healthcare for everyone, not just those in big cities, apprenticeships so that young people can develop useful skills that can give them the best start in life and earn money at the same time. The list goes on.

And despite rushing around the country speaking to party members there is still time to work on issues from Westmorland and Lonsdale that people want me to address. So if there is anything you would like my help on then please do get in touch by emailing me at tim@timfarron.co.uk or calling on 01539 723 403.

YORKSHIRE DAY 1st AUGUST

Dent Parish Council has accepted an offer from Michael Pulford of the YORKSHIRE RIDINGS SOCIETY to officiate at the reading of the 'Yorkshire Declaration' on Saturday 01 August. It will take place at the Sedgwick Stone in Main Street at 11.40am (the time is to signify 1140 years since YORKSHIRE was first mentioned in the Anglo Saxon Chronicles).

The Yorkshire Ridings Society promotes the preservation of the integrity of the boundaries of YORKSHIRE prior to the boundary changes in 1974, visit www.yorkshireridings.org for more information.

The declaration will be read by the Town Cryer and many Yorkshire flags will be flown with pride.

All Yorkshire folk, born within the boundary of Dent, Sedbergh, Garsdale and beyond are all within the boundary defined in 875ad. All residents and visitors are warmly invited to celebrate the day. Low flying Yorkshire puddings and parkin etc may be in evidence and will be on offer on the day. Lets make it a 'right good' YORKSHIRE DAY. A voluntary collection will be available to be shared between Dent and Sedbergh First Responders. At the time of submitting this article to Lookaround further ideas of all things 'Yorkshire' are being considered (any ideas you have will be welcome).

CHURCHES TOGETHER

News from the Pews

So much happens all the year round in Sedbergh. We all know our town is not as sleepy as anyone passing through might think as he/she goes on their way in whichever direction their travel takes them. We have a long list of groups and organizations all in need of people to run them and of course members to participate in whatever activities are planned. There is always something to do and to be done.

Popping into the Parish Church may give the impression nothing much is happening during the week but if you tarry there long enough someone usually comes in, possibly a visitor curious to look at the local church or maybe someone enters to have time for quiet reflection and offer some prayers. Perhaps someone goes with a mission in mind, to dust or clean, to tidy something up. Maybe a flower arranger arrives to change the displays. At a certain time the choir gather for their weekly practice, as do the bell ringers. Many of you will hear the organ playing during the early evening as you walk along the church wall or cut through the churchyard. The Sedbergh Orchestra also holds their weekly practice in the church, which also plays host to its occasional concerts. On Fridays the Chameleons followed by the BoF group meet for their drama sessions. Lots going on behind the scenes with planning, practicing, organizing. Like a jigsaw the pieces fit together and we have what we see, a lovingly cared for beautiful church with its doors open in welcome to one and all.

The Town Crier wearing his best tights and smart hat (and hopefully something inbetween) will be using his loudest voice to announce the opening of St Andrew's Summer Fair on Saturday 11th July at 10 in the morning. This year we have No Fair is complete without a bouncy castle and coconut shy and lots of other games for children. A variety of stalls will be inside and outside church with all manner of refreshments available from our ladies who cater.

Of course the main ingredient for the Fair is people and it would be great to see you all there.

WALK FOR ANITA LAND'S END TO JOHN O'GROATS

When I left off my update last month, I had reached Nantwich in south Cheshire. In increasingly disappointing, ie wet weather I walked on through the Cheshire Plain to the salt mining town of Northwich and then on to Warburton where I crossed the Manchester Ship Canal, briefly entering the outskirts of Salford before taking the Glazebrook Trail towards Leigh and the Leeds-Liverpool Canal via Wigan to just south of Preston. The downside of this route was having to walk through part of the outskirts and centre of industrial towns which sharply contrasted with beauty of the countryside where I had spent most of the walk.

At Preston I picked up the Lancaster canal which is largely peaceful apart from where it passes close to the M6 and west coast mainline. I had more heavy rain between Garstang and Lancaster but at least it had dried up and the sun came out in time for to cross the magnificent Lune viaduct and pass the 500 mile mark. An overnight stop in Bolton-le-Sands before reaching the end of the navigable section of the canal at Tewitfield. But there are still stretches of water beyond Tewitfield and as far as Stanton Bridge and on the day I passed through there was a festival of Trailboats on the stretch near the Westmorland Showground. Trailboats literally small barges which can be transported by ,then lowered into the canal from a trailer. I ended that day at Oxenholme, pleased to be back in the familiar Cumbrian countryside.

From Oxenholme I followed the old course of the canal into Kendal before taking the Dales Way towards Bowness but veered off to Windermere and then the following day through a chilly and inevitably busy Ambleside to Great Langdale and the Cumbria Way (CW). The weather gods took pity on me the next day as I had sun and blue skies as I walked over Stake Pass and then down to Langstrath and on through Borrowdale to Keswick. The views down to Langstrath with Skiddaw in the distance were comfortably the high point of the walk so far.

The weather was not quite as good as I hoped for the following day when I followed the CW around the lower slopes of Latrigg and then Lonscale Fell to the remote Skiddaw House. Inevitably before I reached High Pike the weather closed in, The cloud and rain came down and Caldbeck below was lost from view. I finished the CW in Carlisle and then took non too quiet lanes and the B7076 over the Esk to cross into Scotland near Gretna.

In the absence of any south-north paths or trails, I took a pragmatic route along the largely quiet B7076 (and its successors) through Lockerbie, Moffat and Abington to Larkhall. Thankfully this is also Route 74 of the National Cycle Network so there was frequently a welcome delineated cycle lane and occasionally a separate cycle path. Once north of Moffat the road – almost completely devoid of traffic-climbs in height through magnificent scenery not enhanced by the dozens upon dozens of wind turbines of the vast Clyde Wind Farm.

I ended this leg by taking pleasant woodland paths through the Chatelherault Country Park and then by the waters of Strathclyde CP before having to negotiate a terrifying complex of roundabouts and road construction around J5 of the M74 in an attempt to pick up the Clyde Walk Way, which after yet more diversions, I eventually did. In danger of missing my train home for a couple of days of R&R (and washing), I spent the final hour and a half walking as fast as my very weary legs would take me through the east end of Glasgow , past Celtic Park and into the city centre.

I hope to report in next month's edition that I have reached John O'Groats; so only about 350 miles or so to go! In the meantime please follow my progress and read more about Genesis Breast Cancer Prevention on my blog at www.walkforanita.wordpress.com , on Twitter @walkforanita and on Facebook- Walk for Anita.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Sedbergh Branch of the British Legion has been very active recently involving many members.

The Annual Dinner was held at Weavers Café, Farfield Mill which was well attended. The Dinner is organised to say Thank You to Veterans and/or their spouses for their service over the years. If you would like to be invited the dinner next year, please contact any committee member.

The Branch had a Stand at Sedbergh Gala which was well attended and we thank the Gala Committee for putting on another good event and we are pleased to have been part of it. Tony Reed-Screen was a dab hand at erecting the Legion Gazebo which attracted four new members to the Branch, at which we say welcome. We always encourage new members to join the Group and with new people moving into the area, we will not be aware of your circumstances and will not have any way of knowing who may have served unless you or someone on your behalf tells us so please contact any Member.

The Coffee Morning will be held in the URC Rooms on Main Street at 10am on Wednesday 15th July where all members and potential members are invited to come along where there will be a Raffle, cakes and produce stall and Legion nick knacks. Any offer of help on the day to man a stall, offer a raffle prize or bake any cakes would be most appreciated.

The Festival of Remembrance will be held at the Royal Albert Hall on Saturday 7th November. This annual Festival commemorates and honours all those who have served and especially who have lost their lives in or been conflicts, and is both a moving and enjoyable evening hosted by The Royal British Legion. a matinee (2.00pm) and an evening performance (7.00pm) - both are exactly the same except that the Royal Family attend only the evening performance. The Branch is usually allocated two Tickets at £10 each so if anybody wishes to take advantage of this, please contact any Branch Member.

At the end of August, the resurrected Flower & Produce Show comes to the People's Hall. It is strongly believed that this was started many years ago by the Sedbergh Branch of the Royal British Legion. Enquiries are ongoing with snippets of data being revealed but if you have any information, paper clippings or photographs, the Branch would be greatly appreciative.

Every year, there is the Annual Poppy Appeal and the people of Sedbergh and District pulled out all the stops to help this worthy cause at the last collection. The Chairman, John Douglass, wishes to thank all the people that have helped, almost 150 of you, to help raise an enormous sum of £10,000 - give or take a few pennies. A fantastic achievement.

The volunteers have not claimed a penny for their time or out of pocket expenses. The amount donated has increased every year since 2007. The total since 2001 is £80,089.16.

On the Branch Website you can see the impressive list of names of those from Sedbergh & District that made the ultimate sacrifice. In addition you can see the names of the almost 350 ex Sedbergh School pupils who were lost.

Anyone who has ever served in any of our armed forces or their surviving spouse can call 0808 802 8080 for confidential help ranging from, but not exclusive, to a short holiday, debt advice & assistance, a place in one of the Legions retirement homes, a bathroom conversion to shower, a wheel chair, a wreath or similar if you are visiting a war grave or would like lay one on the local war memorial on remembrance Sunday. Everything is totally confidential. Your local hard working committee are not allowed to know who the RBL are helping locally, so we can only hope that every local veteran or spouse who may have a need are satisfied.

If you would like any more information, please contact John on 20536; Rose on 21575 or Sandra on 21808.

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT COMMUNITY TRUST

Since we last wrote a considerable amount of water has flowed under several bridges and the Trustees have been kept very busy on numerous projects. The First Responders project 9s now a charity in its own right and has effectively flown the Trust's coop. Our congratulations and heartfelt thanks go to Andy Cobb and his team who have worked so tirelessly to bring this project to fruition.

At the other end of the scale the BMX/Skateboarding project is progressing well. The Parish Council was briefed on the proposal at their April meeting and agreed that the Park could be sited adjacent to the children's play area on the North side of the sports field. A bid for funding has been submitted to Sport England and the Trust is now working with the Parish Council to develop detailed plans for the planning application. We will hear from Sport England in September whether our bid for funding has been successful. If it is and if there are no hiccups with the planning application we should be in a position to start work towards the end of the year.

The future of the Charity shop premises at 86 Main Street is still uncertain. We are still investigating the feasibility of purchasing the premises to secure the long term future of the shop. But the decision making process is not easy as we

After the installation of the new widows and double glazing on the first floor of the Information Centre there are no major projects planned for Number 72 and we are concentrating on sorting out minor problems such as recurrent damp patches and leaking taps.

With the help of Sedbergh in Bloom and the Parish Council we are concentrating on improvements to the gardens at Number 72. Progress has been delayed as the Council is still awaiting Planning Permission to lower the wall adjacent to the car park. It now looks as though we will not be able to complete the project until the autumn. In the meantime Sedbergh in Bloom are doing their utmost to ensure that the garden is a pleasant place to relax.

CREDIT UNION IN SOUTH LAKELAND

Credit Unions are savings and borrowing co-operatives which offer to all members of the community, including those who are excluded from traditional banking services, an easy way to save and to access reasonably priced loans.

They differ from banks and other financial institutions in that those who have accounts in the Credit Union are its members and owners, and they elect their board of directors in a one-person-one-vote system regardless of their amount invested. In addition, after meeting the costs of running the Credit Union, all interest on loan repayments is either reinvested or is paid as a dividend to savers; nothing leaves the community.

Much of Cumbria already has access to such an organisation, and currently a group of volunteers is seeking formal approval from the Bank of England for the creation of a Credit Union which will serve the whole of South Lakeland.

This process is now well advanced and it is likely that services will come on stream towards the end of the summer.

Initially the operation of the Credit Union will be centred on Kendal with a phased roll-out across the District over the following couple of years. An employed manager will oversee and coordinate the operation of the Credit Union, but for much of its day to day work, from running the management committee to working directly with customers, it will rely on volunteers.

If you would like to know more about the Credit Union or to be kept in touch with its progress, or indeed if you might like to join our group of volunteers, please get in touch with our Chair, Stuart Pate (stuartpate.kendal@btinternet.com), or our Secretary, Peter Bowker (bowker.p@gmail.com).

SHEEPFEST 2015!

Saturday 12th September to Sunday 20th September

Farfield Mill and Pagoda Community Arts Liverpool combine with Sedbergh to celebrate our heritage as a wool town and the Chinese Year of the Sheep!

What are your favourite memories of Sheepfest 2014? Mine the church bells pealing to signal the start. The queue of kids outside the vets waiting to deliver a lamb and a little boy dragged away shouting 'I want to born it again, Granny! I want to born it again!'

Reading two of the 650 secret dreams that fell off the Technicolour Dreamcoat 'Just a lot more choklat' and 'I wish everyone in England had the benefitt of living next door to a Gregg's bakary' Not world peace, then. . . The moment at the top of the church tower when Tony Reed-Screen realised the abseiling sheep he'd agreed to secure on the end of his rope was sitting in a very heavy wheelchair – a scene straight from Dad's Army. Dennis looking wonderful in yellow. The play at Farfield based on the Mill.

The extraordinary artistic talent that was revealed in so many people. The amazement of the visitors. Everybody talking to each other. Everybody smiling - and a few crying. But in a good way. Can we recreate that experience this year? To give Sheepfest 2015 an extra dimension, we've invited some guests from China. For Technicolour Dreamcoat think dragon; for workshops think paper-cut butterflies and for entertainment Chinese Youth Orchestra, lantern parade and fireworks. But guests don't take over. This is still Sedbergh's show, and utterly dependent on the community to produce the goods again. A support group has been meeting every fortnight to share ideas, we're about to finalise the 9 day programme which will be on Farfield's website mid-July.

In the meantime – blessed are the sheep-makers! I will be at the People's Hall between 10.00 – 12.00 on Saturday and Sunday 11/12 July.

Drop in for a free coffee – there may even be custard creams – to discuss your ideas and book a workshop or more with Arts Sense - for many people the highlight of last year.

And, no, your sheep doesn't have to have any connection to China!

JULY GARDENING

The first flush of hybrid tea and floribunda and repeat flowering shrub roses should now be well underway and will hopefully be followed by a succession of colourful blooms for weeks to come. It is always important to remove fading blooms to promote new flower buds and prevent the plants putting much needed resources into the production of seeds. I usually take the opportunity to give my roses a light pruning whilst I dead head them. I cut back the old flowering stems to a healthy, outward facing bud (about half way down the stem) to encourage the bushes to "break" and form new flowering stems. I also give rose bushes a dose of fertiliser this month. Roses are hungry feeders and quickly exhaust the food supply in our thin soils. If we wish to keep them in flower through the summer and into the Autumn, (and even winter in a good year), we need to provide them with a fertiliser which contains a high proportion of potassium, or potash. As well as encouraging flower bud formation this also has the added advantage of ripening and hardening stems, making them much more resistant to frost damage.

Many other flowering shrubs also benefit from high potash fertiliser, and an application at this time of year, on spring flowering shrubs, climbers and fruit trees should provide a wealth of flowers next year.

Ericaceous shrubs such as Rhododendrons and Camellias may also benefit from a good feed, particularly if their leaves are showing signs of yellowing. They need a different type of fertiliser – one which contains trace elements such as magnesium, iron and manganese. The nutrients are in "sequestered" or "chelated" form. "Plant tonic" and Sequestrene" are two readily available products which fit the bill.

FAMILY MUSINGS

The Ordination of Rev Andrew Woof at the Free Methodist conference at Fulwood F M Church was awesome. As he and Tina were prayed for and as he made his promises to God there were tears of joy in peoples eyes. Such a lot of people were there from Carnforth FMC where he is a Pastor and quite a number of family. Hubby and I were proud enough to burst, but we didn't because it would have made a bit of a mess, or a

"scrow" as my Dad used to say!

Meantime life continues as ever busy with weekly trips to Hull to support my auntie. For those wondering how my Dad had a sister no one knew about. he didn't. M is a more distant relative, "auntie" is a form of endearment. Hard at times but we make allowances for age and infirmities, ours and hers.

The grandchildren continue to grow and develop and are such a joy to us. In the greenhouses Grapes are forming and we are picking strawberries and raspberries and the gooseberries are coming. London Pride is in flower in the garden and we are in danger of swamping by Ladies Mantle but it keeps weeds down. Enjoy the fruits of your labours.

DENT & SEDBERGH ORAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Telling it like it was

Members of the Dent and Sedbergh Oral History Society joined others from the North West in a Lancaster University oral history study day led by national and international specialists. Among the presenters were Anthea Boulton and Veronica Whyman from the Dent and Sedbergh Society.

Accompanied by her guide dog Sophie, Veronica gave a moving account of how, with the aid of special software, she as a severely visually impaired person, was able to specialise in editing and archiving recordings and transcripts of oral history interviews.

Anthea spoke of her experience, over twenty years, arranging the recordings of nearly a hundred Dent, Sedbergh and Garsdale residents whose memories stretch back to the 1920s and '30s. In a powerpoint presentation she played extracts from the Oral History Society's archive covering the dramatic changes in dales life, from horse to tractor in farming, from oil lamps to electricity in the home, and from pony and trap to the motor car.

In September the Society will publish the first of two major books, Telling it Like it Was: Dent and Sedbergh in Living Memory, edited by Anthea and Veronica. Drawing on the archive, they include extracts from no fewer than sixty nine current and "I learnt to swim in the river and there was about four pools around the area and a lot of youngsters, most of us, had swum in the river. And there was one in the Clews at Rawthey down below Settlebeck, the meeting of the waters in the Lune and Rawthey, and then there was quite a nice pool above Killington bridge which we swam in, and then there was Bond's Holme wood above Broadrain Mill. We swam there and we used to build a fire and go down and roast potatoes and what-not and end up having a feast. We were into our teens, the boys and girls as they were, there was nothing untoward and it's amazing really because there was no ... CHRISTIAN FESTIVAL

DDCF Weekend Festival in the Dentdale valley: All welcome

Dentdale Christian Fellowship would like to invite you to join our Christian Festival from Friday 7th - Monday 10th of August 2015 at Dent.

This festival is an expansion of our gatherings, where we meet monthly to encourage each other in our Christian walk, sing praises to God, support and pray together. Someone often shares their testimony on God's powerful love, help, and grace to them. He has intervened in people's lives in the most astonishing ways. Come to the festival and hear their amazing stories.

We will also be holding a number of different events, which are designed

SIGHT ADVICE SOUTH LAKES

On Tuesday 16th June, members and volunteers of the Sedbergh group (+ one guest) converged on the Fat Lamb in Cautley for our Summer Lunch.

The drive from Sedbergh was enjoyable in itself as it was a beautiful summer day and the trees and wild flowers were looking their best.

Fourteen of us were due to attend originally but in the end, only ten of us were able to be there for various reasons. Sadly illness being one of them so Rosemary, Winifred, Doris and May, our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

George had fallen victim to the change in local bus times! We missed you all. However, the rest of us had a most delicious meal in good company and enjoyed trying to guess the locations of the photographs on the menu cards, courtesy of Dennis!

There was an animated discussion on various topics as we "put the world to rights" and exchanged ideas over the coffee and after dinner mints.

We are already looking forward to our "Christmas" meal in November - these get-togethers are great fun.

We meet at 2 pm in the Peoples Hall on the third Tuesday in the month, however our next meeting now is in September. New members and volunteers are always welcome, as are guest speakers!

FRONT GARDEN MATTERS

Are you part of a growing front garden trend? Research by the Royal Horticultural Society has found that the number of front gardens being paved over in Britain has tripled in 10 years. The reason that this can be an issue for our communities is that paved gardens exacerbate flood problems. Concreting or paving increases the risk of flooding, the RHS said, since the impermeable materials typically used to cover a front garden cause water to run off into drains rather than be absorbed by the soil.

The Society is calling on owners to consider permeable paving and to use more potted plants when gardens are already paved.

If you would like any information about flooding, and how to reduce the impact if your property is at risk, please call Debbie Binch on 07917 263 789 or email debbie.binch@environment-agency.gov.uk

NEIGHBOURHOODALERT

Action Fraud has seen an increase in the number of small to medium sized businesses being contacted by fake bailiffs requesting payments for a phantom debt.

The scam involves the business being cold called from someone purporting they are bailiffs working on behalf of a court, attempting to recover funds for a non-existent debt. The caller will then request payment by means of bank transfer and if this is refused, will threaten to visit the premises to recover the debt that is owed.

A range of different businesses are being targeted; including Nurseries, Manufacturers, Hotels and Taxi Services.

Protect Yourself

- Confirm what the debt is regarding; bailiffs are only used to recover certain debts such as council tax, child support and compensation orders. Bailiffs are not used to recover debts relating to private advertisement; these would be collected by debt collectors. Debt collectors do not have the same legal powers as bailiffs and will not have special court authorisation to act. For more details regarding this, please look at the Citizens Advice website.
- Double check with the Court or originating company to confirm whether the suspects are legitimate; if you use a landline

There have been reports of sales people from a solar panel company using high pressure selling techniques.

The law gives rights to consumers in relation to doorstep selling, which is usually a 14 day cooling off period for goods and services over £42 (there are some exceptions). Reports received indicate that the sales people involved are pressurising consumers to waiver their cancellation rights.

If residents are considering having such works carried out at their homes, the best advice is to shop around and obtain quotes from local

LADIES NFU

The May meeting was held on the 19th with seventeen members looking forward to hearing about Lambing Live with the Marston family.

Rachel Marston had brought along her two girls who had grown apace since filming took place at their farm near Kirkby Stephen four years ago.

It all started with someone suggesting to the BBC that the Marston family and their farm would be suitable for their programme. Lots of visits and discussions took place and then it was all systems go!

First a small committee from the BBC had a good walk all round the farm and land and then decided how things should go. Then the farm was full of HUGE vehicles - Lighting equipment, catering facilities, security base etc., etc. In all more than one hundred people were involved with the film in one way or another.

Kate Humble arrived and proved to be a lovely, friendly, down to earth person who the Marstons got on well with. We saw bits of filming, but we just loved how they had made a short film of the two girls! The girls introduced themselves and then proceeded to demonstrate how they attended to their daily chores - sweeping up the farmyard. This was speeded up at the end and looked so funny. One of the nicest things was that Rachel and family got on so well with two female BBC committee members that they are now great friends who visit each other regularly.

Many thanks to Rachel for sharing the making of Lambing Live with us!

A short tea break followed. The raffle winner was Hazel Jackson. Final arrangements took place for our Summer Outing to the pre-sale viewing of auction goods at the 1818 Auction Show Room.

KILLINGTON W I

THE AFTERNOON W I FOR THE ENTIRE DISTRICT

FLAMING JUNE! Yes, for sure!

We certainly have had some lovely days this month but by no means all. Even in early June we have been nervous about exposing the bedding plants to the northern breezes. And we, at Killington W I, are tender flowers too, though perhaps you wouldn't guess it. Over the last week I have noticed that the light green of spring has been overtaken by the lush, darker greens of summer. We were sad this month to bid farewell to one of our Founder Members, Nora Capstick, who has died at the age of 98 – a long life, well lived. It was a glorious day as she was buried in the secluded and beautiful Killington churchyard. She loved the sunshine and it shone for her to the last.

Our speaker this month also brought us joys from our glorious countryside with her talk entitled "The River Lune" Christine Rafaat chose an interesting slant on the subject, dealing with the how the Lune and its valley has influenced transport and industry over many centuries.

We were also entertained by our secretary, Susan Sharrocks, who told us of her experience as a guest at the Buckingham Palace garden party – another event to celebrate the centenary of the W I in Britain. It had been quite a windy day and many hats had to be chased around the garden. Susan came to our meeting dressed in her "outfit". I wouldn't go so far as to say that it put the rest of us to shame, but we were very favourably impressed. Thank you for representing us, Susan.

Another member who has represented us this month is Wendy McLean who also travelled to the metropolis on our behalf. She represented us at the W I National AGM at the Albert Hall. She watched the Queen cutting our very special birthday cake. Wendy had not returned from London by the date of our meeting so we will have to wait until September for a full report.

However, we did learn that the resolution (see last month's Lookaround) was NOT passed.

We do not have a usual meeting next month as we shall be enjoying our own Annual Garden Party. This year we shall enjoy a new venue at the home of Sally Cragg, one of our members. It is not near to a river but I did see a lily pond at the front of the house. Is it deep enough for a swim?

In August we look forward to our annual outing. We shall be visiting Salmesbury Hall and Ribchester, so culture and education to the fore. We shall of course enjoy a good "jolly"! Several of us are also looking forward to a visit to Heysham Nuclear Power Station next month so, if you notice a subtle glow around us, you will know why! As an ex-geography teacher I am really looking forward to this. (the visit, not the glow!)

As for the rest of the meeting- to summarise:- happy members, lovely tea, sound finances, excellent feedback from our Lune Valley group meeting, competition winner- Valerie Cann, raffle winner- Edith Gerrard. Life goes on.

when we welcomed our speaker, Jackie Huck from Orton. Jackie, a keen WI member herself, regaled us with readings of her own poems, including some from her anthology "Cats like Me", and excerpts from "Salt and Pepper: Into the Cruet", an amusing novel she had written about the life of a nursing cadet, based largely on her own experiences in Lancashire, but which rang very true with the training experiences of some of our own members who had worked in the nursing profession. Gaynor thanked Jackie on our behalf for a very entertaining evening.

Only five members of the book club were able to meet at Valerie's home next day but four of the others had passed on some comments about the book we had just read. This was "The Coffin Trail" by Martin Edwards, the first in a new series called "The Lake District Mysteries", set in the fictitious "Brackdale", which some of us thought might be in the Staveley area judging by some clues. It's always fun to read about places you know, but there were some things here that just didn't ring true to some people in the group. It was an easy, entertaining read, however; we felt involved in the mystery and an average score of about 7 was estimated.

The June walk, to be led by Ellen, will take in the Aysgarth waterfalls and the pretty village of West Burton, returning via the Templars Chapel.

Our next meeting, at 7.30pm on Wednesday 8th July in the committee room, will be a flower-arranging demonstration by Joan Bentley, so we are looking forward to an inspiring evening! Visitors will be made very welcome.

three visitors. We began our business meeting with a report from the recent Lune Valley Group meeting hosted by Killington WI. Nine of our members attended the evening and were thoroughly entertained by the speaker who gave us a unique presentation of the history of the Punch & Judy complete with puppets, followed by a delicious supper. Two of our members had attended the Brewery Arts Centre, Kendal where a live screening was shown of the National Federation Centennial AGM from the Albert Hall in London. We are looking forward to hearing an in depth report of this meeting from our Link WI member who attended as representative of the Lune Valley group. Details of two outings were finalized. The first to Holehird Gardens, Windermere which includes a talk by the head gardener. Secondly our summer outing to the historic Dalemain House near Ullswater. Both promise to be interesting and enjoyable events. Our Craft group who constructed a working puppet as a competition entry for the recent Group meeting is continuing to meet weekly and any interested members were encouraged to 'come and have a go' or just come for a cup of tea and a chat. Two of our members recently attended another special celebration, a Royal Garden Party at Buckingham Palace. They gave a brief description of their 'experience of a lifetime'

Sheepfest 2015!

Saturday 12th to Sunday 20th September including photographs and are intending to provide a written resume which all members can read at their leisure. The business meeting concluded with details of plans for a local Family Quiz night to be held in October in order to raise funds for our chosen charity this year, Manna House.

President Marion Feltham then gave a warm welcome to our entertainer for the evening, folk singer Jacqui Macdonald. Jacqui accompanied by her musical partner Roy presented a programme entitled 'Singing my Travels'. Jacqui had travelled widely throughout her career and had met and worked with many well-known names in the musical world. The duo had us all singing along to most of their repertoire with tunes and songs from across the world ranging from Liverpool UK, Ireland, Canada, United States, Australia and Germany. With witty repartee and jokes we were all thoroughly entertained. Member Chris Taylor shared her experience of seeing Jacqui perform in Germany years earlier whilst she herself was working there. We ended the evening as usual with tea and biscuits including some scrumptious chocolate brownies.

New members and visitors are always welcome to join us. Our next meeting will be on Wednesday August 12th which will be an Open meeting including a Jacobs Join supper.

HOWGILL W. I.

The June meeting was held at Firbank Church Hall. Mary Silva was in the chair as Bridget was representing us at the Centenary AGM held at the Royal Albert Hall in London. We are looking forward to hearing her report next month on this special event.

Five members enjoyed the Lune Valley Group Meeting. Entertainer Michael Diamond gave an evening of fun and magic. The competition cup for a puppet in a shoe box was won by Barbon WI for the second year running. Lesley Hennedy was thanked for making our entry. Thank you Killington WI for a most enjoyable evening.

Final arrangements were made for our day at Cartmel Races where we enjoyed a jacobs join lunch before testing our skills on backing some winners.

Mary introduced our speaker Georgia Houghton, who most of us know as a practice nurse at Sedbergh Medical Centre. The subject was Diabetes, a common life long condition. There are 3.9 million people in the UK living with Diabetes and another million are unaware they have it. We were given symptoms to look out for and ways in which we can prevent it developing by maintaining a healthy lifestyle and diet with regular physical activity. Diabetes can be successfully treated by administering Insulin. Mary thanked Georgia for the in depth understanding of the condition.

The competition for an arrangement of weeds in a teacup was won by Mary Stainton with Mary Silva second. Lesley Hennedy went home with the raffle prize. In the social half hour Jackie Hooley read snippets from a book featuring interesting tales of what life was like in Howgill and Firbank in the 1950's. The meeting was brought to a close with our usual jacobs join.

On 2nd July Pat Ascroft will be sharing her experiences of her trip to Iceland. Do join us at Howgill Village Hall. Visitors and new members will be given a warm welcome.

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT HISTORY SOCIETY

Walk on Frostrow Fell

On the afternoon of Saturday, 23rd May, 15 members of the Sedbergh and District History Society met at High Branthwaites, Frostrow, to be warmly greeted by Barbara Hartley, her husband Derrick, and very warmly by their golden retriever Charlie.

The purpose of the visit was to explore an area (roughly 2 sq km) of the upper Frostrow Fells beyond Low and High Branthwaites (old farmsteads) in order to identify some interesting archaeological remains. Barbara, who guided us on the walk, had studied at Leicester University and had developed a keen interest in archaeology. Some 10 years ago, having moved to High Branthwaites, she had set about exploring the open fells and, on her first dig, had immediately discovered items probably dating back to the Neolithic/early Bronze Age periods: a scraper, a brown chert flint (originating, it transpired, from Derbyshire) and a stone polisher (from East Yorkshire). These and other artefacts were passed around the group in the parlour prior to setting out on the walk.

In fine, clear, sunny weather the group climbed the steep bank onto the open rough fell in a south-easterly direction, approximately in line with the bridleway which follows above the course of Holebeck Gill over towards Dent. The first stop was to look at a vaguely rectangular arrangement of stones on a slightly raised area, likely to be the site of a shieling, possibly of Viking origin, where shepherds would have made a rough shelter for their sheep and goats. In close proximity were two others, rounder in shape, but all three with excellent visibility of the hilly pastures. The third of these was next to the spot where Barbara had used her spade for the first time as part of her archaeological project for the university, finding the Bronze Age lithics just beneath the surface.

After crossing Holebeck Gill two more possible shieling sites were pointed out, as well as a vague line of piles of stones which may have marked an old parish boundary. Climbing further onto the crest of Longstone Fell (OS name) we observed a series of larger clusters of stones, more circular or elliptical in shape, which had all the hallmarks of barrows, or burial chambers. Sited just below the crest of the ridge, probably too high for human habitation, these looked right across the Rawthey and Lune valleys to the Lakeland hills, a possible source of trade through the region of Neolithic stone axes. Also clearly in view on the hillside above us was the ring cairn, again an ancient burial site, actually marked on the OS map.

Our wanderings were not yet over. To the south, back in the Holebeck valley, we reached 'Dry Tarn' – not dry after a wettish spring – a hidden gem of water, seemingly artificially raised, cradled into the hillside. A couple of hundred metres lower down the valley lay another quite extensive area of rough scattered stones, quite possibly evidence of human habitation. This, together with a nearby mysterious semi-circular structure part-obscured by reeds, proved the intriguing culmination of our afternoon's explorations.

Back in Barbara and Derrick's house after nearly 3 hours on the open fell, we were generously treated to tea, cake and wine while ruminating over what we had seen. As Barbara had suggested, it would surely merit an organised dig at some point in the future.

On a perfect June evening a small group of members congregated in Kirkby Lonsdale market place at the start of a walk around the town. Before we set off, Mike Kingsbury who was to lead the walk gave some information about our surroundings. He told us that a charter for Kirkby Lonsdale market had been granted in 1227. However, the market had only been on its present site since 1822 when it was created from the gardens of Jackson Hall (now the King's Head Hotel). Before that time it had been situated at the other end of the town where the old market cross now stands. The present market cross, although based on a much older design had been donated in 1905 by Rev. Llewellyn Davies in memory of his wife. Mike drew our attention to the King's Head Hotel which with its elegant Georgian facade is the oldest structure in the market place the other buildings having been constructed later in the nineteenth century and in the twentieth century. He also mentioned that we would see very few pre 18th century architectural features in the town centre, due to the fact that there had been two major fires in the town over the centuries, the most disastrous of which had destroyed much of Main Street in 1776.

Leaving the market place, we walked westwards up New Road which had been built in 1821 by cutting through the site of the recently burnt down Rose and Crown Inn. On the left hand side of the road Mike pointed out a former Sandemanian Chapel which now houses the town's library. At the top of New Road is Abbot Hall Farm, one of the oldest buildings in the town. It was rebuilt in 1632 and retains some original features. Turning left, we walked part of the way down Mitchelgate which was originally the main road to Burton. We passed some small houses which were built in the 18th century as dwellings and workshops. A right turn took us back to New Road. Crossing the road, we entered an alleyway called Tram Lane This led to the southern end of Main Street where Mike showed us a Grade 11 listed milestone. This informed us that we were 250 miles from London.

As Mike guided us back past the market place and along the shopping area of Main Street, he mentioned that only one building (the one which was now an ironmonger's and garden shop) had escaped the 1776 fire and the modernisation of the reconstructed street. We followed Market Street around to Fairbanks which had been the turnpike road to Kendal. Our route then took us through the churchyard and past St Mary's, the mediaeval parish church, named after St Mary's Abbey in York which had owned land in the town. A few steps from the churchyard Ruskin's View provided an impressive panorama of the Lune Valley on such a lovely, warm, still evening.

The final section of Mike's guided walk took us to the area east of Main Street. Street names like Swinemarket, Horsemarket and Cattlemarket indicate that this had been the trading hub of the town and the old market cross stands in a small square on Mill Lane. There is no evidence of the seven mills that had been situated on Mill Brow, a steep hill which leads down to a ford across the river. Halfway down the hill is The Old Manor House, a substantial dwelling with a 17th century decorated front and evidence of an earlier building inside. At the bottom of Swinemarket a narrow thoroughfare called Jingling Lane led back to the market place.

Thanks were due to Mike for giving us such an interesting evening. Even members who thought that they knew Kirkby Lonsdale quite well learnt a considerable amount about the history and layout of this attractive town.

SETTLEBECK NEWS

Well done to our Year 8 chemists - Megan Iveson, Rosemary Kelly, Jarvis Johnson and Murray Child, who represented Settlebeck in the Salters Chemistry Festival. Salters is a national festival held at the University of Manchester. Teams from all around the country compete against each other to demonstrate high levels of practical skills. The students had to analyse who had committed a murder in the salt mine by forensic testing and then design and create a timer using a chemical reaction. The day was finished off by watching a Flashes and Band show demonstrated by Dr Agger from the University of Manchester. Thanks as well to Lyndsey Goodyear and Susan

Murray who accompanied the group.
Year 11

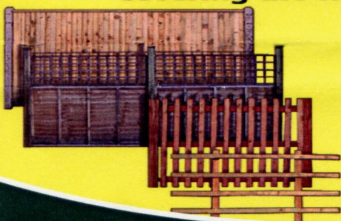

It's been a sad few weeks as our wonderful Year 11s complete their time at Settlebeck. We had our traditional water fight which is always great fun and this year, thanks to Mrs Oxley, saw shaving foam pies in addition to the water balloons, buckets and water pistols! We still have our annual trip to Blackpool to come and the prom in July, which is always a really special occasion for both students and staff. They have really been a wonderful year group. We will miss them and wish them every success in the future.

part of their PSHE lessons. Their brief is to produce a decorated trainer to rival the 'Nike Glitter'. Students have been working in groups to complete the task and will be competing against each other. As part of the task they have had to assign roles such as managing director, marketing manager, finance director, produce cash flow forecasts, create the marketing campaign and produce the trainer. The project will culminate in a series of presentations by each group to a panel of judges.

Author Visit

A group of students went to Lancaster for the launch of Robert Muchamore's latest book – a firm favourite, particularly with the boys at Settlebeck. They got to hear him talk about his book as well as receive a free signed copy.

In the up and coming weeks we will be working hard on our project for a float at this year's Kendal Torchlight Festival. With a massive thank you to Colin Parker for allowing us to use his lorry, we are really looking forward to the project. If anyone has any creative talents, be it sewing, papier machè, costume design or is just generally good at making things, then please get in touch with us as the more the merrier!

Settlebeck Sport

The start of the athletics season saw some fantastic performances at the District Athletics Trials held in Blackpool. Three of our students performed so well that they were selected to represent the South Lakeland district and compete in the County Trials. Cara Ellis competed in the 100m, finishing strongly in her heats to make it to the final. Veteran county athlete Katie Woof finished her 5-year Settlebeck county career by performing strongly in the 100m and long jump, finishing 5th in both. Allan Brian also finished high in the field in his long jump and triple jump events. Well done to you all.

After being delayed by bad weather, which seemed to always happen on a Tuesday, The Satellite Club link has taken off between Settlebeck and Kirkby Lonsdale Golf Club. As the club has a contracted golfer, we have been able to form a partnership with the help of Active Cumbria. This entitles our students to free golf lessons at the club and also free membership to the club. I'm sure you will agree this is a fantastic Summer term brings the sunshine to the dales (hopefully) and it is this time of year I often am considered to have an enviable job, working outside in the sunshine, playing sport all day. As far as I'm concerned, it is my perfect job all year round, especially working at a school like Settlebeck where the students are so determined and committed, not only in their sport but also their whole school ethos.

SEDBERGH PRIMARY SCHOOL

Sedbergh Sports Evening is once again upon us! My thanks go to the Sedbergh Sports Committee, Howgill Harriers Running Club and Sedbergh Primary School PTFA for organising such a memorable sporting event for all the family to enjoy. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the local businesses who have generously donated funds to finance the running of the event. Also, huge thanks go to Mr and Mrs Andrew Pratt. The use of their field truly provides a unique and picturesque setting for the evening.

So why not come along on Friday 10th July at Buckbank Farm. The gates will open at 5pm and the races will begin at 5.30pm.

This is a real family event with BBQ, drinks and ice-cream. All proceeds will go to Sedbergh Primary School. We would like to use the money to buy books to encourage the enjoyment of reading and give our library a thorough make-over.

GRAYRIGG SCHOOL

School goes from strength to strength

To celebrate the recent successful OFSTED report, in which the school was judged GOOD in ALL areas, staff and governors of Grayrigg School treated the children to a fun day of circus skills with Hull based company "AVAGO CIRCUS". The school has been through a sustained period of improvement since being judged inadequate by OFSTED in June 2012. The new staff team and head teacher, Kirsty Cooper have thoroughly enjoyed the challenges of the last few years and are pleased with the OFSTED outcome. Mrs Cooper said

"It has been an amazing journey and I can't thank the staff, governors and parents more for the loyalty and commitment they have shown towards our school. I love leading our unique small school, where no child is ever invisible."

School leaders were particularly pleased that the OFSTED inspection recognised the school's strength in developing the whole child.

"The head teacher knows every pupil at the school very well. She is highly ambitious for each pupil's personal development and academic achievement." OFSTED APRIL 2015 the last three years have been outweighed by the rewards of working with such wonderful children. In a letter to the children the head teacher wrote

“There are times when I have worried, there are times when I have even cried over the past few years but every time things have been hard, I only have walk into my classroom to know why the hard work is so important. After long, challenging (and a little bit boring) meetings with important people - it is you lot that have kept everyone going. You have embraced all the changes we have made and given us some great advice. Most importantly, you make every day at GRAYRIGG fun filled and fantastic.”

The Ofsted also recognised how the school uses its rural location to get the best out of the children...

“Pupils experience a rich and vibrant curriculum. Learning outdoors, trips and visitors to the school capture the imagination of pupils. For example, caving forms an integral part of the science investigation for Key Stage 2 pupils this term. All pupils participate in weekly outdoor learning, usually in a nearby forest. This teaches pupils to assess risks in their own locality, while learning about science, natural history, geography and enhancing their skills in design and technology.”

their responsibilities.

At the Prep School Year 8 (1st form for those of us still unable to cope with years) went to France for half term. This had an unfortunate effect for Mel Sproul and Elle Heathcote who both had starred at the Athletics District Trials and had an excellent chance of selection for the County Team. They were away in France at the time of the County Championships. But they are young enough to try again next year in the same age group. Also starring was Lydia Huby (year 7) in the Blackburn Festival of Music, Speech and Drama. She won her piano class with the highest mark across all the junior classes and came third in singing. She was elected sole representative of Blackburn Diocese at the national final of the Prayer Book Society's Cranmer Awards early in 2016.

In the week before half term the junior half of the upper School put on a production of Killed, a play about a boy who got lost in the melee of the battlefield in 1916 and was shot for cowardice. An effective end was the roll of honour played slowly down the screen (which included my great uncle).

Speech Day was the true beginning of summer – a perfect day with Sedbergh showing itself off to its best advantage, lunch on the House lawns, and sports in perfect weather. The speaker was Lt. Col. the Rev'd Nicholas Mercer who was Liberty Human Rights Lawyer 2012 for his work in high-lighting human rights abuse during the Iraq war. He spoke about education as a right preserved by the Human Rights Act, and concern about its recall. Also on Speech Day there was an impressive exhibition by the Design and Technology Department, which included a table made for Evans House hall, and a coffee table for the Headmaster's study.

Despite the First XI's bad time during the first half of the term they emerged as T20 champions for the North West. They also beat Lancaster Grammar by 7 wickets. Winder won the house match by 7 wickets against Evans. The sailors, having had to battle with gale force winds earlier in the term had to content with almost no wind at all at Bassenthwaite. Three girls have been selected for the Junior Regional Performance hockey trials at Durham. Johnny Campbell who won the Wilson run came second in the Hawkshead 10 k run in 34 min 43 sec. Alastair Crossdale and Alex Moon have been selected to the England under 18 rugby team on tour to South Africa, and Old Sedberghian Alex Wootton (left in 2012) gained his

As well as the tugs of war there were inflatables, penalty shootout, Zorb balls, stock, a tombola and ice cream, hotdogs and drinks. It was very successful and perhaps not surprisingly Powell House won. We look forward to a strong challenge from the Town next year. The event raised over £2,000 for the charity Hope and Homes

What do governors actually do?

A governing body 'governs' the school in partnership with the headteacher.

They ensure that all children and young people receive an education that helps them reach their full potential.

Governors give strategic direction and focus through agreeing plans and aims, setting budgets, deciding priorities, appointing staff, supporting the work of the school and challenging it to improve.

No special skills are required. The only essential is a keen interest and commitment to this school and this community. The most important thing you can bring is time, commitment and enthusiasm.

The governors meet once every half term (six meetings a year) for about one and a half hours each time with additional meetings as required for members of sub groups.

If you are interested or want to know more about the role then please contact Sedbergh Primary School on 20510 or email admin@sedbergh-pri.cumbria.sch.uk alternatively you could chat to one of the current governors.

PEOPLE'S GYM & FITNESS CENTRE

Fundraising

GymAid 2 – As predicted, the afternoon of live acoustic folk and popular music in the United Reformed Church on Sunday 24 May was wonderful. It raised just over £300 after expenses on the door, and we received an incredibly generous donation of £250. A grand total then of just over £550, which will be doubled by Gina Barney giving us total funds of £1,100.

The musicians, Brendan Lewes, Kev Kendal, Strings and Swings, and Triadic, are all so talented and gave their time for free so that all funds can go towards the fitting out of the gym. We also need to thank Carole Marsden for allowing us to use the Church – a brilliant venue - everybody agreed that it has such good acoustics. And our massive thanks go to Ian Hutt who was so kind as to let us use his sound equipment AND stayed all afternoon setting it up, operating it and taking it down again – again giving his time for free. Then there were the really kind people who provided cakes, more than enough to keep everyone going all afternoon and really scrumptious, and the kind people who donated raffle prizes.

And last but not least thanks go to the audience who turned up and generously supported the event and enabled us to raise the £1,100 for our funds. There were some empty seats – such a shame to have missed the opportunity to raise even more.

Howgill Harriers – they have agreed to give us a donation of £500 in return for a 10% discount on gym subscriptions for a year for their members. Again this is a very generous gift to help us on our road to getting the gym open. Doubled up by Gina this gives us another £1,000.

No6 Finkle Street – Jacky Baines held a successful coffee morning on Saturday 6 June in her wonderful shop in support of the gym. She raised £130 which doubles up to £260 – so thank you so much Jacky.

Advance subscriptions – if you start a standing order for £10 a month now not only will you receive one month's free membership for every £10 you pay now, but any new standing orders will attract match funding from Gina.

That leaves us with a balance of £3,820 still to raise to get the match funding from Gina. So come on you people who want this gym to open – get your thinking caps on and find ways to make Gina put her hand in her pocket for that remaining balance!
Open Day

We are still on track to hold our Open Day in July – probably late July but we do not have a definite date. This is a day for you to come on down to the gym, see what a great facility has been built, see what equipment we have, see what equipment we still need, and find out about subscription rates and how to join.

KILLINGTON SPORTS

Rainbows at Killington Sports

Damp weather and a doubtful forecast leading up to Killington's traditional Sports on the Thursday of Whit week didn't deter the regular supporters and participants from all around the Lakes and Dales, although overall attendance was down on recent years. The rain kept off for most of the evening apart from a few heavy showers, - one of which finished with a magnificent double rainbow over Killington. There was a suggestion that we add an extra event – "Find the Pots of Gold"!! However, Killington Sports continued as usual with what is (at least) its 172nd. annual event – giving thought as to how we should perhaps celebrate the 175th. in 2018!

Much credit for another successful Killington Sports goes to the local Sports Committee for the preparation of the field on the very wet previous night and for the organisation on the night. However, they would like to express their gratitude once again to John Capstick for the loan (and early mowing!) of his field and to Killington Marquees for the provision of tents.

The Sports Committee were also grateful for the assistance of the C&W Wrestling Association who provided the Judges, and to the Fell-racing Association who recorded all positions and times in the Fell Races for the benefit of their members. Excellent BBQ refreshments were provided throughout the night by Alison Thompson Catering, together with ice-creams from Roger Ingham's traditional barrow – while he once again acted as Handicapper and Commentator - entertaining the crowd with his humorous (almost politically correct!) but very knowledgeable commentary. The new illustrated programme of events was designed and printed by SmartOffice, Sedbergh.

The evening featured a good range of events including the usual Field-running, Fell-racing (both on foot and on Mountain Bikes), and Cumberland & Westmorland wrestling. These were interspersed with the usual fun events such as Tyre-, Potato-, Three legged- and Sack-races, Pillow-fights and Egg-throwing. The usual side-shows included a Coconut Shy, Pitch-penny, Horse-shoe and Quoits and were all well patronised.

Although all events had a good level of entries, often requiring several heats before the final race, the most popular events of the night were once again the Fell Races which had, in total, over 200 entries. This number was dominated by the 11 & Under Fell Race when about 100 youngsters

SEDBERGH COMMUNITY SWIFTS

The weather in May and June has been unseasonably chilly, and there have been fewer parties of swifts seen flying around than we would usually expect at this time of year. But in July the swifts are feeding their chicks, so they will be going in and out of their nest sites more frequently, giving us a better chance of catching sight of them as they fly up to their nests in eaves. Swift nests are hidden in nooks and crannies on top of walls so the birds are never seen on the nest.

For the best view of them, go and see the pairs that are nesting in the eaves on the south side of Sedbergh School library on Loftus Hill. Stand in the car park and look up at the eaves and you'll see them swooping in at speed. There are could well be parties of screaming swifts hurtling around as well. The best time to go is morning and late evening, although as the month progresses, the chicks need more frequent feeding and you may see them throughout the day. (In June there were some sparrows nesting there too.)

The swifts that fly high in the skies over town are feeding on insects, much like aerial plankton, including troublesome gnats and midges! The screaming parties that zoom around at lower level are an indication that there may be nest sites nearby, and include non-breeding birds that are prospecting for sites for next year.

As we stroll around the area looking for nest sites, we'll be wearing these 'Ask me about Swifts' badges, so do please stop us and have a chat. And if you would like to help us, please get in touch (see below).

We need to preserve nest sites because so many have been lost during renovations of buildings, when the entrance holes in crevices, often unintentionally, get blocked up. We also are seeking places to put up swift boxes, let us know if you would like to do this - modern buildings are suitable too. And remember, swifts are not messy birds (unlike swallows and house martins!).

We must make the most of enjoying our wonderful swifts over the next few weeks because by the end of July, or early August, our swifts will be departing for their long migration back to Africa. Swifts are only here long enough to raise just one brood of 2-3 chicks, which is why it's so important to look after them. Having hatched around mid-June, the chicks spend 6 weeks in the nest before making that momentous maiden flight into the great blue yonder.

Don't hesitate to get in touch for help and advice, about what you can do: please help save our swifts and make Sedbergh, Dent and all the surrounding area swift-friendly:

- Where have you seen swifts going into nest sites?
- Where have you see swift screaming parties?
- Could you put up boxes, especially if you have scaffolding up?
- Why not volunteer for surveying ?

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT COMMUNITY FIRST RESPONDERS

Lots of news about the First Responders this month!

There are now nine of us! Recent training and interviews were held in Sedbergh. We are an enlarged team and we hope to have five more when they too have been trained, bringing our total to 14. But we have room for more, so do get in touch if you may be interested. (Details at the bottom) The photo shows the current team.

Our fundraising is yielding rewards. Generous donations have been made by Jim Mattinson, the Roofbox Company and Sedbergh WI. The Gala raised over £100 as well as giving an insight into how to resuscitate poor Annie. Our thanks are due to Peter Knapton of Dent First Responders who gave up a Saturday afternoon to support us. And to Suzy Thurlby and Clive and Anne Harris – particularly to Anne who made some marvellous cakes that we raffled. The following week a few hours at Killington Services boosted our bank account by a further £84. And our applications for grant funding are doing well too - the Sedbergh Community Trust has granted us £5,000 towards

May we take this opportunity of using The Lookaround to say a huge thank you to that lovely - and secret – person, and indeed to all our wonderful supporters.

Further good news is that the British Heart Foundation has given us the go-ahead to buy four more defibrillators at a reduced rate. We already have the required equipment to fill four more 'kit bags', but because we are only allowed to use North West Ambulance Service approved bags (which are in short supply!) we are still waiting to be in a position to set up five full sets of kit. And we have another pager sponsor.

So what's in a bag? (I hear you ask). A cylinder of oxygen, a variety of oxygen masks and tubes, bandages and dressings, a pulse oximeter – the thing they sometimes put on your finger in hospital. As well as taking your pulse it measures the level of oxygen in your blood. Gloves, antibacterial gel, scissors and more – including maps.

We have been setting up maps of the area. Most of us think we know Sedbergh quite well, but our town centre is full of nooks and crannies, strange numbering systems and houses with names and no numbers. It all needs documenting. And that's just the town centre! Those of you in remoter spots are sometimes well-hidden up and down single track lanes. One of our jobs as First Responders is to speed the access of the ambulance to your property- not helped if we've just blocked the access ourselves, so we are trying to 'learn' our patch. One of the requirements of a First Responder is to undertake on-going training. Some of that is to improve our skills, but we're also going to have to learn the area, so you may well see us out and about finding out where you are.

On training- we have recently bought a training defibrillator. This enables us to hone up our own training and to train others. Personally, I was curious about and possibly a little afraid of this machine which I knew was capable of doing something dramatic. We'll soon be out and about and showing it to you and your group or organisation, so you can see for yourself how simple it is to use. And it won't let you use it unless it is necessary to do so. I think that's probably what worried me about it. Again the contact details are at the end of this article.

It's probably worth mentioning that we can't 'Respond' to you as individuals! That doesn't mean we're not going to talk to you or help you, but it is a requirement that you have called an ambulance and they then call us. By the time you read this we will have at least one pager and more sre on order. We are called out by either the pager or telephone, having 'signed in' to show our availability. Although a team of nine or fourteen sounds encouraging, we still need more if we are to provide 24 / 7 coverage. Computer happy people may like to go to www.nwas-responders.info or e-mail us on sedberghfirstresponders@gmail.com

Changes to booking arrangements

We are changing the agency arrangements to hire the Hall. Smart Office, our current book agent is retiring as our agent. The Hall Committee is deeply grateful for the support that Smart Office has given us since taking over from SOS. We are in discussions of how to fill the gap. We will provide full details in the August Lookaround. Meanwhile continue to use Smart Office. If you have any enquiries that Smart Office are unable to deal with please contact us on (015396) 20677 or 20790. Booking forms, terms and conditions, user information and availability can be found on our web site. This site also shows forthcoming events.

Other Redevelopment News

Every week we receive donations, large and small, towards the Hall's Redevelopment. This is a quiet appreciation of what we are doing. Many, many thanks to all our donors. Their money is being spent wisely. Shortly we hope to complete the changed appearance of the front of the Hall, by wet dashing the wooden section between the new front entrance and the side entrance. At the same time we will improve the insulation to bring it closer to current Building Regulations. This will keep the main hall warmer in winter and cooler in summer.

SEDBERGH TOWN TWINNING

A group of Town Twinners from Sedbergh and Dent visited our twin town Zreče to celebrate 10 years of twinning and to take the opportunity to explore the beautiful country of Slovenia. Our original charter was signed at the Old House in Skomarje, a village near Zreče and we assembled there again on May 27th, our anniversary. Speeches were made then the assembled company were invited to share a buffet and drinks all provided by local tourist farms. Several members of the original Zreče delegation were present and it was very good to renew old friendships. Musical entertainment was provided by David Burbidge and his folk singers who hailed from all corners of the UK.

On the 28th following an excursion to the nearby historic town of Celje, where we enjoyed a splendid lunch in a hilltop restaurant under the walls of the mediaeval castle, we were invited to a presentation evening where joint celebrations were held. Zreče is not only enjoying 10 years of twinning, it is also 200 years since a school was established there and 20 years since Zreče became a separate municipality. Medals, framed certificates and flowers were awarded to deserving citizens then it was our turn to receive a framed document acknowledging our ten years twinning. Garth Steadman (Chair Town Twinning Group) myself (Secretary Town Twinning Group) and Dorothy Pratt, widow of Alan who signed the original charter, accepted it on the Group's behalf. Another splendid buffet followed.

Next day we visited the basilica of Ptuska Gora with its ancient history of pilgrimage and vivid modern stained glass windows then enjoyed a town tour and wine tasting in the ancient town of Ptuj itself.

Our next excursion was to Ljubljana and Bled. We did our best to have a town tour despite a cordoned off track where huge numbers of pink clad ladies were running round and round the city centre. Bled as ever lived up to expectations. Timing was everything as a thunderstorm interrupted activities for a while. Fortunately we were under cover being refreshed by cream cakes, hot chocolate etc. at the time and when we emerged for our boat trip to the scenic lake island everything was sparkling, clear and stunningly beautiful. The day was rounded off by another delicious meal at the winery Zlati Gric.

As ever the welcome was warm, the sun shone and the friendships forged over ten years as strong as ever. We now look forward to welcoming the Zreče party here at the end of June of which there will be a full report next month..

SIGHT ADVICE SOUTH LAKELAND

My name is Scott Hemsley and I am the Community Development Coordinator for Sight Advice South Lakes based at Stricklandgate

House, Kendal. My main role is to visit people at home who are starting to struggle with their sight. I am able to demonstrate a variety aids to help people keep their independence.

Having effective lighting is a good starting point, as well as making sure there is good contrast in the house. I have some Daylight and LED task lights to demonstrate; I often get a "wow" when I turn them on as they can make a big difference. I have a range of easy to see phones and talking devices such as clocks, watches, mobile phones and Boombox talking book machines. If you have been to your optician, got the best reading glasses possible, and are still struggling to read small print, we have a Low Vision Clinic where you can access free magnification. If you are housebound, you can have a domiciliary visit from an optician. We run three Positive Step Groups each year which help people who have been newly diagnosed with sight loss find out which services are available for them.

Sight Advice South Lakes has a well established support group that meets at the People's Hall in Sedbergh on the third Tuesday of the month in the afternoon. It is good to talk with other people who have a sight problem and realise that you are not on your own. If you are interested in any of the activities mentioned, or if you would just like a chat, please phone me on 01539

DENT MEMORIAL HALL/GALA

As our main fund raiser event comes closer we are open to offers of help from the organisations which use our facilities and from members of the community. Gala needs a lot of people to be involved to spread the workload. I am happy to do all that is necessary and be there all day for others an hour is what they can cheerfully manage and that is fine. Setting up happens on Sunday afternoon and clearing up is done on the day.

We need the income the Gala brings so we can maintain and enhance our facilities and keep rent as it is.

Dent Youth Club have painted an amazing picture of what Dent means to them to be hung in the Sedgwick Room after refurbishment.

As always do contact me with any concerns or ideas.

SEDBERGH IN BLOOM

As many will have noticed we have noticed we have been late putting in bedding plants. This has been due to the weather being so col, so let's hope it gets warmer.

We were recently awarded a generous grant from the Community Office Fund - which of course receives monies from the Charity Shop. We are extremely grateful for this grant as it will be partly used for the following:-

The Parish Council have applied to the YDNP to lower the wall which overlooks the garden of 72 Main Street (Sedbergh Information Centre) from the Car Park. It is the intention that if permission is granted for this project that the stones removed from the top of the wall will be used to create a raised flower bed below the wall in the garden of 72 Main Street. When the raised flower bed is created this group will undertake the planting. Sedbergh Parish Council are also supplying two wooden benches for this area. Further monies will be used for maintaining the existing flower beds and replenishing plants and shrubs when necessary.

We also thank the Sedbergh PC for the grant we have received from them. Our project at the Toll Bar is ongoing and hopefully this time next year it will be fairly well established.

We would welcome some more youthful members to our group. Our one male member very kindly undertakes the heavy work for which we say to him a very big thank you.

one or two of the plants we put in at the Fire Station have decided they do not like it there and have died. We shall be replacing them in due course; but we are very pleased with how it is looking. We have had lots of positive comments regarding our projects which makes our work more rewarding. Thank you.

DAVID WHICKER

The following appeared in the Manchester Evening News (MEN) and is reproduced by permission of Reporter Emily Heward and Photographer Joel Goodman and may be of interest to our readers.

'David Whicker is used to dealing with unpredictable situations at work - but giving an 80's icon a ride on his shoulders was his most surreal shift yet.

As a security worker, David Whicker is used to dealing with all kinds of unpredictable situations - but a half-naked Grace Jones jumping on to his shoulders during her main stage set at Parklife Festival in Manchester on 6th & 7th June has to be one of his most surreal shifts yet.

The 80s icon - wearing nothing but a skimpy corset, red cape and white headpiece - summoned him over to take her on a ride along the front row as she performed her hit single "Pull Up To The Bumper" in front of thousands of fans at Heaton Park on Sunday.

David, who is in his early 30's and lives in east Manchester, had no idea he was about to become part of the show until the Jamaican singer's tour manager asked if the star could clamber on.

The Showsec employee and wedding DJ told the MEN: "I had my back to the stage, obviously our main priority is watching the crowds and making sure everything's alright.

"I didn't even realise she was half naked until I put her down again. "My friend said: 'I bet when you woke up on Sunday you didn't expect to have your head between her legs.' "It's definitely one to mark off the bucket list."

Grace thanked him with a kiss on the head as she climbed down from throughout the set, which she finished by hula-hooping along to her final song Slave to the Rhythm.’

As you may have guessed, David is our son who was raised in Sedbergh and returns on a regular basis. Grace Jones has appeared in the James Bond film of 1985 ‘A View to Kill’ and has never been to Sedbergh. She is also remembered as the star who hit Russel Harty when he interviewed her in 1981.

his shoulders and back on stage.

David has found his face splashed all over the news since the show but he is taking his 15 minutes of fame in his stride.

“I work at Manchester Arena as well so I do crop up in pictures and videos from time to time if I’m working in the pit, but never like this before,” he said.

“Working in security, anything can happen and you just have to go along with whatever situation is presented to you. You only reflect on it afterwards.

“It’s not every day you’ve got a soul legend sitting on your shoulders. I’m just glad she chose me to be part of her show.”

It was a brilliantly bonkers set from start to finish from the 67-year-old singer and one-time Bond movie actress.

After strutting on stage in a gold mask and flowing black cape, she then stripped off to nothing but a chest-baring corset, tribal body paint and a grass skirt for her cover of The Pretenders’ Private Life, which also featured a male pole dancer.

It was one of six costume changes

Charity walk across Morecambe Bay

On Saturday 5 September at 10.30am a walk on the spectacular Morecambe Bay sands will be led by Queens Guide Cedric Robinson MBE. The walk is around 8 miles and takes approximately 3 hours starting at Arnside promenade. The scenery is stunning, see the wildlife close by, it’s a fun but slightly weird experience walking across the mud flats! If you’ve never done it before – now is your chance.

This is a major fund-raising event to help your local South Lakes Citizens Advice. Last year we helped 3,000 local residents with free, confidential and impartial advice. There's growing demand for our help and like other charities we struggle for funding. So please do come and walk with us. We think you will have a great experience and lots of fun while at the same time raising funds through sponsorship by family, friends and work colleagues. There is a Registration fee and we are limited to 200 people, so book your place early. Full details are available at www.southlakescab.org.uk or telephone 015394 47185. We look forward to hearing from you!

Free, confidential advice and help is available from South Lakes Citizens Advice on any aspect of debt, consumer problems, benefits, housing, employment and any other problems. We have various outlets across South Lakeland and can also give advice over the phone – telephone 015394 46464 for an appointment and help.

MAY WEATHER

What a month!! It can be summed up as wet and windy! With 6.3 inches in total and only 9 days on which rain was not measured it was not a typical

May. On the 2nd half an inch fell in less than ½ an hour driven by a gale. It was extremely windy also throughout the month and although all bar one day the maximum gust was from the North West it was a cold wind. On the 1st of the month the wind chill took the overnight temperature down to 21F (-6.5C)!! Everyday had winds in double figures in mph and 6 in 20+mph and many more in the high teens. Temperatures varied from a high of 70F(21C) to a low of 31.1F(-0.5).

The lowish temperatures and cold winds held back growth. The low temperature on the 1st really knocked back early growth. Certainly grass struggled to grow and the sheep were eating it as fast as it appeared. Usually May is a very green month with all the new growth on the trees but this year the seasons are running about a fortnight late. The May blossom was only just bursting into bloom by the end of the month. A lady from Sedbergh school came looking for wild flowers unsuccessfully. Last year, at the same time, she got an armful. There was a good show of dandelions, eventually. The bees love these for their nectar and pollen. I have killed a few queen wasps but there haven't been hordes as yet. Butterflies are still a rarity. The sparrows have young in the nest though "our" resident was very late in getting started nesting. The Blue tit is sat on 9 eggs in a box in the yard. The blackbirds have eggs in a nest in the shippon. Lets hope the seasons catch up with themselves.

AGE UK

The Sedbergh Age UK will have a group meeting on the first Tuesday of the month from 1.30 – 3.30 at Gladstone house to play games – scrabble, cards – whist, dominos and have a chat and a biscuit and a cup of tea.

Everyone is welcome and it's FREE.

This will be precede by a Coffee Morning at 1030 in Gladstone House. Again, everyone is welcome as there will be a Cake Stall, Bric-a-Brac as well as lots of information.

BEWARE THE BULL

As I was putting up my tent
Just two miles to the west of Dent,
In the evenings' gentle lull
I heard the roaring of a bull.
I left the tent in tangled heap
As o'er the gate I did leap.

I quickly turned around to see
What might next have become of me.
The tent lay crumpled on the ground
But of the bull, there was no sound.
Peace reigned o'er the spot supreme,
I shook my head, was this a dream?
Upon the five-barred gate I climbed
To convince myself I wasn't blind.
No vicious bull was there at all.
But two boys crept behind the wall.
So with glasses held up to my eye,
Between them, as they passed by,
I saw the cause of my disorder
An innocent little tape recorder!!!

EDITORIAL

From Tuesday 21st July, SmartOffice will no longer receive any items for Lookaround. We thank all the staff at SmartOffice for their help and assistance with Lookaround and wish them well for the future.

From that date, all items for Lookaround must be deposited in the Lookaround Post Box which is situated in the Tourist Information Centre at 72 Main Street, Sedbergh. If you wish to place an Advert, please include the correct money or cheque with the details and place it in the box. A receipt will be issued and left with the box for collection later.

During the transfer to 72 Main Street, there will be hiccups but please, if you have any ideas or suggestions, please let us know.

Thank you to everyone in being patient and understanding during this change-over.

Another new Advertiser this month is Avril Whittle with her Eclectic Mix of everything in Patch & Fettle at 75 Main Street. Dennis J Whicker

ADVERTISING IN LOOKAROUND

For the benefit of any advertisers, the following information will assist you.

Our distribution area is the LA10 Postal District which is Sedbergh and the surrounding villages, but it is sent all round the country and the world.

We are published on the 1st of every month (except January).

February to November is printed black ink on white with a full colour cover. The December/January issue is in full colour.

We do not have whole page adverts but will allow two half page adverts opposite each other.

The Front Page is given priority to Event Adverts relevant for the appropriate month.

You can supply the information and we can create an advert for you. You can supply an example in hard copy and we will reproduce it (please mention if a particular Font is required). You can supply an original using Microsoft Publisher, a Word File, a jpg File or as a PDF.

If you order numerous adverts, the content can be the same every month or it can change if you are seasonal.

The closing date for new Adverts is 15th of every month. Renewed adverts and articles are 19th of every month.

Advertising rates have been updated: December 1991, December 1995, March 1997 & August 1999.

PERSONAL MESSAGES

These are £1 each and are for giving good wishes, thank you's, Birthday Greetings and any other celebration or congratulation. You may also sell personal items - not on a business basis, and make an appeal for wanted items.

Details with respect to people Passing Away are inserted for free.

Please submit legible writing as many mistakes have been made in the past due to not being able to read the text.

GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Any organisation that charges an admission, sells items or requires a donation from the public for anything at their event and wishes to include details in The Lookaround, are requested to place an Advert with us. This can be supported by text which cannot all be included in the advert. Any report after the Event is free. The request for payment for an Advert is to assist with financing The Lookaround which has a large printing expense every month. We feel that the Advertising Rates are very reasonable. All Adverts for Events automatically have the details entered into the Diary Page at the rear of The Lookaround and appear on the Lookaround Web Site. If organisations do not wish to Advertise with us, details of the Event will still appear on the Diary Page but no text will be inserted.

BUSINESSES

Adverts for the Rent or Sale of property are not Personals and can only be included in a boxed Advert.

If you are a new advertiser in Lookaround and you order 3 or more adverts, you will receive one free advert and can also include some text explaining who you are, what you are, where you are, etc (which can not all go into an advert) up to about 550 words for free.

If you have more than 3 months of advertising, we will automatically send a renewal reminder should you wish to continue. If you order 10 months, we give you one free (making one whole year).

We respectfully request payment with ordering. Please make cheques payable to "Sedbergh & District Lookaround".

Payments by BACS can also be made.

Account: Lookaround
Account Number: 30940267
Code: 20-45-28
