BOXES OF HOPE CUMBRIA

Launch of 2016 Shoebox Campaign

Reg. No 1153106

It may be the middle of summer, but it is time to bring you news of Cumbria's 2016 Christmas shoebox campaign, covering Eden, South Cumbria and Furness.

The benefits of being a "local" charity are that a team from Cumbria takes the shoeboxes and brings pictures and stories back of the children who receive them and, as a small charity we have no staff to pay, so any surplus funding goes towards longer term educational support for these children. The boxes contain educational supplies such as pens and pencils, toys (such as dolls, cars and tennis balls), sweets and hygiene items such as face cloths and soap.

Children and adults alike love to fill a shoebox – it is a simple and fun thing to do, doesn't have to cost a lot of money, and it really does make a difference to a child who has none of the basics we take for granted. For these children there is none of the commercialisation we endure for weeks leading up to Christmas. Many of them have never in their lives had a gift. Many have never had a toy.

Please do start looking for empty shoeboxes and shoebox bargains such as toys, games, fun items, hygiene and stationary items, warm hat/scarf/gloves/socks, sweets, and pick up a leaflet from local shops and offices, or check out our website where you can download it.

The campaign runs from Nov 1st – 12th and more information will be released later in the Autumn as to where you can drop off your shoebox in November, together with the £2 donation for transport costs. There will be a drop off point local to you, in Sedbergh!

For more information, take a look at our website, www.boxesofhopecumbria.co.uk and our Facebook page. You can contact us on info@boxesofhopecumbria.co.uk.

"Is it true, miss?"

Story time at the end of a school day: a class of seven-year-olds sit with rapt attention as their teacher, Carole Marsden, tells them the story of the gentle giant. On July 13th we too found ourselves hooked, and one of our members, a teacher who had once acted out the story with her own class as an end-of-year assembly for their parents, was close to tears because of the memories it brought back. Telling stories was obviously a favourite part of Carole's time as a teacher, as I'm sure it was – and still is for many of us – a favourite part of any parent's or grandparent's life. When the story is finished, the thing many a child wants to know is: "Is it true?"

The last time she spoke to us, Carole (not to be confused with 'our' Carole Marsden, URC minister in Sedbergh!) had recently retired as Vicar of Shap and moved to Kirkby Stephen. She was soon snapped up by the Kirkby Stephen Team Ministry and now, for her sins (!) she is working half time as Rector of Kirkby Stephen. She still has the opportunity to go into schools in her new role, but it's no longer the very close privileged relationship she had with the children she used to teach on a daily basis and whose characters she knew so well.

Carole recounted various humorous stories about her teaching experiences, involving parents as well as their children, and illustrated her talk with drawings shown on an overhead projector. June Mudd thanked her for her entertaining talk before we settled down to enjoy tea and cake prior to our short business meeting.

“Could any of this story possibly be true?” wondered members of the book club, meeting at Sandra Kemp’s home on July 14th, about some aspects of Ben Aaronovitch’s first novel of five in his “Rivers of London” series. Billed as an ‘urban fantasy’, its hero is a probationary mixed-race police constable, Peter Grant, who is left to guard the scene of a brutal crime, when he meets a ghost who actually witnessed the crime. Combine this detective story with magic, Punch and Judy shows, a feud between the personified rivers and streams of London, romance and plenty of humour, plus an intimate knowledge of London, and you have a heady mix which can become confusing at times. Readers who knew London well were able to follow the story better than those who didn’t and are more likely to want to read the sequels. We felt that the book was well written, fast-paced and amusing, but members who are uncomfortable with magic and fantasy gave up on it. Overall, the average score given was about 7.5.

Rosemary Blanchfield is planning to lead the walking group on July 21st on a 6-mile ramble including a climb over Arnside Knott. We wish them a

Our Tuesday Meeting was conducted by our Vice-President, Margaret Denton, in the absence of our President. She introduced our Guest Speaker, David Smith, former Headmaster of Settlebeck School, who since retiring has cycled round the British Isles. He showed us beautiful slides of some of his favourite views especially some unusual Lighthouses and objects he had seen on his travels.

We enjoyed a lovely afternoon tea before getting down to the business side of the meeting. Our coffee morning in June had been a success and on Friday 8th July four of our members visited Margaret Hodkins at her home in Church Brough and then went on to Barnard Castle. Some of the members attended the Holker Garden Festival. We are all looking forward to our annual Garden Party to be held on Wednesday 20th July at the home of Sally Cragg and to the outing to Browsholme Hall near

LADIES NFU

On 21st June members enjoyed an fascinating evening outing to Sprint Mill, Burneside, home of Edward and Romola Acland.

The 3 storey historic water mill, still with the original turbine, houses a remarkable collection of old hand tools and memorabilia associated with rural crafts. Demonstrations and courses in green woodwork are often run here.

We explored the organically run fruit and vegetable garden and lovely riverbank around the mill and house and were also lucky enough to have a conducted tour, by Edward Acland, of the meadows and woodland that they own and are managing...returning wild flowers to the meadows and replanting hedges.

The evening was rounded off by a delicious supper prepared by Romola Acland.

Do visit if you get a chance. The gardens are often open for the NGS scheme and during September there will be several artists in residence for the C-ART festival.

THE CIRCUIT OR A DAWN CHORUS?

To bike or not to bike, is that the question?

In response to her letter to the editor in last month's Lookaround, whilst it is gratifying that Dorothy Blair has read, with interest, Garsdale Parish Council clerk's report on their opinion of the behaviour of some of the motorcyclists riding through the dale, I fear she is somewhat missing the point. She pertains that bikers should be welcomed even though they are loud and overtake at great speed in places that cars would never dare. I think that if she were to canvass the residents of Garsdale, the result would be overwhelmingly against her view.

The Parish Council has had many complaints about the bikers passed to them over the years and has approached the police on numerous occasions who have tried to mitigate their behaviour but unfortunately, the effect is short lived as bikers contact each other by mobiles warning fellow bikers of the hot spots. Most complaints are about the reckless way that some of the bikers ride along the A684. Some of our more elderly residents will not venture out at the weekends if the weather is good as they fear for their lives. Some residents cannot bear to sit outside because of the noise if their house is situated near the road. Every resident has had some altercation with a biker at some stage, some have had many. Just last weekend, I personally was driving to Sedbergh and coming round the bend at Whitbeck, came face to face with a biker on my side of the road as he/

she was cutting the corner. We narrowly missed but only by millimetres. Our house is in the 30mph zone but how many times over a weekend, when outside, we cannot engage in conversation whilst a stream of bikers speed past at over double the speed limit obliterating any chance of being heard?

Most of these bikers are aged boy racers, who should know better, trying to shave a few seconds off their timed circuits. Last Sunday I was awakened at 5.50am by one who no doubt was taking advantage of the quiet road to do just that. Sorry, but I would prefer a natural dawn chorus.

The point that Dorothy Blair is missing is that this is a National Park, a place of outstanding natural beauty that people like to visit, to sample the peace and quiet, a place to reflect and breathe in the purity of simple, outstanding landscapes, to commune with nature. I am sure that the majority of bikers are sensible and enjoy the dales as we do but it is such a pity that a significant number of reckless, thoughtless and selfish bikers spoil it for the residents and visitors by their, quite frankly, stupid and dangerous behaviour. Garsdale would welcome sensibly driven, quiet, courteous motorcyclists but I fear that the reckless ones will continue to spoil it for others and if a ban was to be put in place, despite them having paid their road tax, then the Garsdale would certainly hang the flags out.

Lakes Housing, attended the meeting to give a presentation on the recently announced changes to Sheltered Housing Schemes, in particular Maryfell/Gladstone House here in Sedbergh. Various points were raised by Members and residents, including the lack of communication given to tenants, concern over availability of Scheme Managers under the new proposal, continuity of staff, lack of emotional support and potential isolation of individuals. Members agreed that they would continue to liaise with SLH over issues raised, including the possibility of lobbying Government, along with the National Housing Federation, for reconsideration of the way in which changes proposed to housing benefit will impact on sheltered housing. It was suggested that a resident from Sedbergh could volunteer as a case study for future correspondence.

TIM FARRON MP

The past month has been a bit of a momentous one politically and tiring one personally. Inevitably the national events took up quite a bit of time rushing round television and radio studios and talking to journalists and discussing issues with other MPs.

However, I have tried as hard as I can to ensure that things did not distract me from my main job of being your MP.

Our battle to save the Kentmere Mental Health Ward at Westmorland General Hospital continues. The trust has been holding a consultation about the future of the ward.

Something they should have done in the first place rather than simply leaping to the conclusion that they had to close it. It is too late for you to contribute to the consultation but if you are reading this before the 30th July it would be great to see you on our march through Kendal in support

SEDBERGH SCHOOL AUGUST VACANCIES

Sedbergh School are seeking motivated, enthusiastic individuals to join our growing Hospitality Department. We are now recruiting the new following positions:

Chefs ~ Trainee Chefs ~ Catering Assistants (various shifts) ~ Porters/Drivers

All the above positions are 40 hours per week, working 5 days out of 7. There may be the opportunity to work term time only or 52 weeks, depending on your commitments.

Sedbergh School offers:

- Generous salary package
- Benefits, including contributory pension scheme with life cover
- Staff benefits package, including staff cards discount
- Use of the School's sports facilities, including the indoor swimming pool

Further details can be obtained from: hadmin@sedberghschool.org

An application can be obtained:

- As a download from our webpage <http://www.sedberghschool.org/senior/Information/Vacancies>
- In email from hadmin@sedberghschool.org
- From the Sedbergh School Bursary either in person or by telephoning 015396 20303

Safeguarding the welfare of children is of the highest priority to Sedbergh School.

Every employee of the school has a responsibility to:

- - Protect Children from abuse
- - Be aware of the School's safeguarding procedures
- - Know how to access and implement the required procedures
- - Keep a sufficient record of any significant complaint, conversation or event
- - Report any matters of concern to the Safeguarding Officer
- - Attend annual in-service training provided by the School of keeping the ward open (we are meeting at Abbott Hall at 1.30pm) and if it is after that date you can still want to sign my petition. Just search on "Tim Farron Kentmere ward petition" and follow the links.

Sedbergh School is committed to safeguarding & protecting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.

The hospital has been coming under further threat. The trust who run it have told me that they want to make their "temporary" arrangements for cover in the Helme Chase maternity ward permanent. They removed overnight and weekend cover some time ago as a "temporary" measure in response to staff shortages. At the time I worried that this was a backdoor route to removing cover permanently and further that this was just part of a plan to gradually run down and eventually remove maternity care from the hospital entirely, something they have tried to do in the past. The change to cover arrangements does seem to have resulted in fewer women choosing to have their babies in the hospital as there has been a decline in births there. We cannot allow this to continue if we are to avoid this area becoming purely a place people retire to or to visit for their holidays and weekends. We need to have a safe and easily accessible maternity ward at our local hospital and I will continue to fight to ensure that this happens.

Of course although local issues are my focus the national political scene will have an impact on us locally. The decision to leave Europe will impact on the subsidies that our farmers will be receiving and the new ministers in the various departments will all bring with them different views on issues like schooling, energy and transport. I have written to Andrea Leadsom the new minister in charge at Defra to ask her to keep the promise she made during the Referendum that farmers would be unaffected by a decision to leave the EU. I am sure that there will be any number of exchanges with her and other ministers over the coming months and years to ensure that our needs in South Cumbria continue to feature significantly in their plans.

lucky ones, for I remember that in my ward there were many suffering the effects of bullet wounds, amputations and burns in that now largely forgotten conflict that were the Northern Ireland 'troubles'.

We have just remembered the dead of the Somme and next year we have the centenary of Messines and Paschendaele, the latter in many ways worse than the Somme, but then comparisons of this sort border on the fatuous. The dead are dead and the beautifully tended graveyards in Belgium and France attest to their sacrifice, but what of the survivors?

What happened to those who went through hell to return to what had been described as, 'A Home fit for Heroes'? Many were condemned to utter poverty; decorated officers forced to eke out a living as professional dance partners; limbless veterans reduced to selling matches or bootlaces on busy thoroughfares; war widows of men who had made the ultimate sacrifice left to bring up children on a pitiful pension grudgingly given by a Government intent on forgetting.

In 1926, on the tenth anniversary of the Somme a march past of the 'Salford Pals' was organized by the Mayor of that town. He was horrified when only a handful of veterans responded to his call. Immediately enquiries were made and the shocked Worshipful Mayor was told that many had only rags to wear; many had pawned their decorations to eat and none wanted to 'let down', (expressed by one veteran), 'the lads that died.' by appearing so shabbily turned out. The Mayor immediately launched a successful appeal to help these veterans.

Earl Haig, it is often forgotten, had been instrumental in founding the Royal British Legion in 1921, bringing together four national organisations of ex-Servicemen that had established themselves after the First World War.

This was a welcome response to an evident need, but the organization could only scratch the surface of this overwhelming hopelessness.

We must be a society that cares. It is my view that if we as citizens have obligations to Society then, logically, that Society has obligations to us, its members. The Royal British Legion still supports the military casualties of conflict but, ultimately, it is the responsibility of us all to try to achieve that 'Home fit for Heroes'!

I have been surprised by the number of members of our Labour group who have contacted me over the past few weeks to offer their support and to encourage me to carry on in my role of organizer, which I will, with their support, do.

COUNCILLORS CORNER

"You know it's been a momentous day in British politics when the Prime Minister resigning wasn't the lead story on the Six O'clock News". So began the Channel Four News on 25 June. Of course it was the result Mel, Alex and I all voted for and as such we welcome it. But we were saddened that David Cameron chose to resign so quickly although we recognise his position was untenable.

The referendum had been promised in various forms since 1995. When it was first re-promised two years ago I had assumed that "Stay" would win by a landslide as I thought the time had passed: how wrong I was.

Clearly the tactics of the Remain camp could not have been more inept. They had a legitimate positive case but chose instead to traduce their opponents as ignorant racists. In the event they fooled no-one but themselves. That Sedbergh and Kirkby Lonsdale were going to vote overwhelmingly for Leave has been obvious since Christmas so I was surprised that local Lib Dems with their endless leafleting and "surveys" seemed unaware of this.

The nation has voted and the result was more decisive than many council elections. No-one should be under any delusions that the road chosen is an easy one but now it has been chosen it is important that every elected member at every level works together to ensure the best outcome both locally and nationally. undertake that Mel and I and all our groups on district and county will work for that end at all times.

So, we have a new prime minister, Theresa May, a person who like me is more inclined to sit and reflect than some of her more flamboyant rivals. Let us hope her example will spread outwards and that those who grandstand and wave shrouds are less able to subvert our politics than they have in the last ten years. The national press has mentioned the fact that she has always been willing to attend functions, party and other. They have made less mention of her willingness to campaign and knock on doors. I have introduced her to electors on two occasions and she has visited the constituency at least ten times. The first time I took her around Kirkby Lonsdale I was amazed by how warm she was face to face and how intelligently she listens to every word spoken.

We also have a new DEFRA Secretary and it is no secret that I welcome the passing of Liz Truss. That Andrea is an unknown quantity is self-evident. There has been interference in agricultural markets since the Irish Cattle Act of 1667. The Corn Laws of the eighteenth century are now infamous but commentators forget that the high prices they invoked were necessary as farming pretty well paid the entire bill for civil society with the Land Tax, the Poor Rates and the Bridge Money. Transferring from a Common Agricultural Policy to an All British Agricultural Policy need not be difficult; negotiating access to European markets will be. No-one has even raised the question of whether we go for high price low subsidy or a modernised version of the deficiency payments. I still remember those little green and pink cheques coming well into the 1980s. Don't Panic ! Brussels wasn't built

KILLINGTON SPORTS

After a cold and wet night last year, the 2016 Killington Sports, on Thursday evening, was held in glorious sunshine, with the Middleton Fells as a stunning backdrop. Record crowds were treated to a packed programme of events, including 4 fell races, track events, wrestling, pillow fight, and the ever-popular egg-throwing. The two highlights of the evening were seeing local boy, Jay Ferguson, crowned the World Champion in the Under 15, Under 8 stone, category, and a new record being set in the senior fell race, by Michael Kallenburg from Cardiff, in a time of 10 minutes 37 seconds.

support, and in particular The Rural Law Practice, who gave all of the prize money for the Wrestling World Championship.

GARSDALE STATION

Settle-Carlisle Railway

140th ANNIVERSARY OF OPENING IN AUGUST 1876

Saturday August 6 and Sunday,
August 7, 2016

Local volunteers in Sedbergh are distributing copies of a programme of special events to mark the 140th anniversary of the opening of Garsdale station. Most stations on the Settle-Carlisle line opened on May 1, 1876 but Garsdale opened three months later, in August.

To mark the 140th anniversary, there will be daytime talks on Victorian Garsdale and Hawes (Christine Hallas, author of 'The Wensleydale Railway' on Sat Aug 6) and Rails in the Dales (David Joy, former editor of The Dalesman on Sunday August 7). The talks will be followed by a rare Viewing of the Midland Railway's book of original engineering drawings for the bridges (viaducts) on the branch line from Garsdale to Hawes. This six mile line opened in 1876 and closed in 1959.

There will also be an Open Hour at the restored Hawes Weighbridge Hut - the former coal merchant's office in the Station Yard (now a car park). Both talks will be held at the Dales Countryside Museum in Hawes, starting at 11.45am and immediately followed by the Viewing and Open Hour.

Mount Zion chapel, which is less than a mile from Garsdale station, has close links with the Settle-Carlisle railway. The chapel's foundation stone was laid on the same day that passenger trains first ran on the line (May 1, 1876) and it is thought to be the only permanent place of worship on the line built by Settle-Carlisle railway contractors. The chapel's annual programme of community events includes a walk (Saturday August 6) and hymn-singing and a community tea (Sunday August 7). Details of these events are included on the printed anniversary programme and the chapel congregation extend a warm welcome to everyone to join them.

The Paw-Print That Helped to Save a Railway Line

In the 1980's Britain's most scenic railway line, the Settle to Carlisle, was under threat of almost certain closure. There were just two trains a day and no freight at all. Today, the line is busier than ever, open 24 hours a day and about to have its capacity doubled to cope with demand. An amazing turn-around.

Among the people who formed the group that was to save the Settle – Carlisle railway line from closure was Graham Nuttall a very modest Lancashire man who shared with a growing number of people a sense of outrage that the S&C seemed condemned. He became the first Secretary of the Friends of the Settle – Carlisle Line (FoSCL) – still going strong and now the largest rail user group in the UK. Graham Nuttall's tragic story cast a shadow over FoSCL's early days, but inspiration too.

He and his faithful Border Collie dog

Ruswarp (pronounced 'Russup') were inseparable. Ruswarp's paw print had the distinction of being the only canine signature of objection to the line's closure. He was deemed to be a 'fare paying passenger', about to suffer 'hardship' as required by the men from Whitehall, should the line close. Ruswarp was soon to suffer hardship indeed. Graham Nuttall lived just long enough to see the line's reprieve in 1989 for on 20th January 1990 he went missing. He and Ruswarp bought day return tickets from Burnley to Llandrindod Wells, there to go walking in the Welsh Mountains. But Graham never returned.

Neighbours raised the alarm. Searches by police and mountain rescue teams in the Elan Valley and Rhayader found nothing. The case aroused national interest for a time. FoSCL produced Missing Person posters as did police in Lancashire and Dyfed Powys.

Then on 7th April 1990, lone walker David Clarke found Graham's body, by a mountain stream. Nearby was Ruswarp, so weak that the 14 year old dog had to be carried off the mountain. He had stayed with his master's body for eleven winter weeks.

Ruswarp was cared for by local vet Bertie Ellis of Beulah – fees paid by the RSPCA, who quickly decided to award Ruswarp their Animal Medallion and collar for 'vigilance' and their Animal Plaque for 'intelligence and courage', on the nomination of Superintendent Ralph Rees of Dyfed Powys Police. Coroner Alfons van Hees recorded an open verdict and heard evidence from Home Office pathologist Professor Bernard Knight. Ruswarp lived just long enough to attend Graham's funeral, having been lovingly cared for by Graham's aunt and uncle, Gerry and Edith Maden of Clowbridge. The RSPCA had been inundated with offers to re-home Ruswarp.

Ruswarp's devotion to Graham has resonances of Edinburgh's Greyfriars Bobby – the Skye Terrier who remained at his master's graveside for 14 years until his own death in 1872. There are a number of similar stories on record but this level of devotion is rare. Through Ruswarp, the plight of the Settle to Carlisle railway leapt back into the public mind – for though reprieved, the line needed massive investment if it was to recover from years of neglect. A plaque was put up at Burnley railway station and a platform bench was dedicated at Garsdale station on the Settle-Carlisle line - Graham's favourite place. And life went on.

Garsdale station – remote and lovely – is about to be restored to its former glory by Network Rail. Their decision to do that restoration coincided with a letter appearing in the local press suggesting that FoSCL should consider a more permanent memorial to Ruswarp – at Garsdale.

So it is that we have decided to commission a life size bronze statue of Ruswarp, to be placed at Garsdale Station, under the watchful eye of the signaller. Graham Nuttall would have been delighted that the signal box is now operational 24 hours a day, so busy is the line he fought to save. We have a number of photographs of Ruswarp as well as colour film of him crossing the line at Settle in a documentary about the then doomed S&C, narrated by Alan Bennett no less. Network Rail have given approval for the statue to be placed in a prominent location at the refurbished Garsdale, there to add to the history of the place and the line.

We have decided to launch an appeal for the work – the sculpture will cost around £8,000 but we believe that it will come to symbolise the struggle to save the S&C, the sacrifice and effort made by so many to build it and its amazing recovery since it was threatened with closure – and the incredible devotion of ‘man’s best friend’.

If you would like to contribute to the Ruswarp memorial fund, send cheques, payable to The Ruswarp Memorial Fund, to FoSCL’s project officer Josie Perriman, at Foresters Cottage, 2 Howson’s Yard, Settle BD24 2EG. Should the fund be over subscribed, extra monies will go towards the Garsdale restoration scheme with a preference to enhancing the Ruswarp aspects. You can contribute online by going to the Friends’ web shop at www.settle-carlisle.com/webshop, and then clicking on Ruswarp Appeal.

SETTLEBECK NEWS

Congratulations to our winning Year 8 team who were victorious at Salters Chemistry Festival. Maisie Gough, Isobelle Metcalfe, Zac Baines and Jay Kirby took part in the national festival at the University of Manchester. They won the afternoon competition, beating 20 other schools. The students had to develop a chemical reaction that could be used to time precisely 1 minute. The team managed to complete the task in only 15 minutes! Well done.

In June, 11 of our boys went to Yorkshire Cricket Club at Headingley for some intensive coaching. The boys undertook some fitness training and then set themselves up in the indoor nets to look specifically at their batting and bowling technique. It was a great opportunity for the boys to experience professional coaching.

Due to the recent appointment of a Pro at Sedbergh Golf Club, we have been enjoying some golf coaching sessions during our GCSE PE lessons. Having the opportunity to do this is great and we are looking forward to setting up some other out of school sessions with the Golf Club.

The drama department has been busy this term. GCSE students went to London to see Matilda and had a great day out. Lower school students have done Shakespeare workshops and also went to the Dukes Theatre, Lancaster where they were involved in The Hobbit workshops as well as

Our Year 11 leavers held their annual Prom at Castle Green Hotel in Kendal this year. They all looked wonderful as they partied and said their final goodbyes. Good luck to everyone.

We are saying goodbye to Judith Greene after 9 years as Headteacher of Settlebeck. During her time here Judith became a leader in education which involved passing on her wealth of knowledge in school improvement to other headteachers. It wasn't long before her skills in this area were noticed and she was headhunted by an academy chain to lead the improvement of 3 schools in the north east of England.

Under her leadership Settlebeck became one of the top schools in Cumbria for the amount of progress students make, particularly in maths and English. She gained a national reputation for her knowledge and understanding of the needs of small schools and she was invited to speak to the Schools Minister about new funding formulas.

Her creative timetabling skills have allowed a small school like Settlebeck to be able to offer 25 GCSEs plus courses in Outdoor Education, Landbased Studies and Additional Maths and our model is one that is being increasingly adopted in schools in the South Lakes and Cumbria.

finals at Arundel. George Hill has been picked to play for the North of England U15 squad. The 1st XI became North of England T20 champions, winning by seven wickets. The Prep School U11 cricketers became Northern Champions and progressed to the national Finals in July. Beltran Larraz made his cricketing debut for Sedbergh Town.

A ten strong contingent went to the Blair Atholl Long Range Championships where years 9 and 10 learnt a great deal about shooting in wind, and among other School successes Freddie Cade scored an impressive 74 of 75 at 900 yards, and Struan Freeborn (year 10) was chosen to shoot for Scotland in the Laurence Trophy. The School came fourth in Ashburton Shield and the Cadet Pairs, and 2nd in the Cadet IVs at Bisley. The Prep School won the Prep School Rifle Association's Hammond Shield making a new record and raising the bar by 13 points.

In the Prep School Regatta at Southport the Prep School Gold team, after a very close battle, came first in front of Windermere and Rydal. The School had a sweep at the Northern CCF Regatta.

The Leavers Ball on the last Saturday of term seems to have been a "brilliant" success.

The celebrated children's author Michael Morpurgo visited the Prep School at the end of term. He had been intended to be the speaker at their prizegiving but in the end could not attend on that day.

The School held an early morning service – with bagpipes – at the Cloisters on 1st July in commemoration of the start of the Battle of the Somme 100 years ago, and the service was shown on the ITV Border news that evening.

At the end of term a group from year 10 visited the Somme, remembering the Old Sedberghians who died there. Another group visited the Britannia Royal Naval College. A group of Old Sedberghians and others will visit the Somme at the end of September as part of the Old Sedberghians pilgrimage to visit all the known Old Sedberghian graves.

Those on the Duke of Edinburgh Gold expeditions at the end of term struggled through incessant bad weather. The conditions were "challenging".

The Head of School for next term is Maria Medoza with James Horan as Deputy Head (and also Head of Choir with Santana Grimaldi head chorister).

VILLAGE HARMONY

Saturday August 20

Village Harmony, and their sister choir Northern Harmony, are both from Vermont, USA and have been visiting Sedbergh and Dent for over 20 years, performing concerts and ceilidhs, and joining other local choirs in workshops here.

This group of 32 musicians - mostly aged 18-25 - perform to a very high standard as a choir, smaller ensembles, folk band and dancers. The singing includes American Shape Note, Balkan, South African and English folk harmony - the dancing include English country and ceilidh, Contra, and Balkan dances - with an excellent caller to let you know what to do, and over 20 dancers who already know the dances to help guide you along in the ceilidh dances.

The evening is split into two with a concert at 7pm where you can sit back and enjoy the fabulous harmony singing of the fine young voices - with some instrumental ensembles as well. And then the ceilidh with more singing and dancing where you are invited to join in - or just sit and watch.

The group is led by Larry Gordan who founded the group in 1989. Although his first love was mediaeval and renaissance music, he is a vital figure in New England shape-note singing, and is the music editor of the popular Northern Harmony shape-note songbook. He is also a passionate dance teacher, with a special interest Balkan folk dancing.

Other leaders in the group include David Oliver who was for many years director of the folk music education organisation Folkworks based in Newcastle. David leads the ceilidh band The Hedgehog's Skin, lectures on folk music education at the Universities of Newcastle and Durham and has led different choirs throughout the north of England.

I hope you will join us for the evening which promises to be as enthralling as ever. Tickets are available from the TIC, by contact myself, or if any remain: at the door.

CANCER CARE

COAST TO COAST WALK FOR CANCER RESEARCH UK

Mission accomplished! We have completed the Coast to Coast walk from St Bees on the west coast of Cumbria to Robin Hood's Bay on the east coast of Yorkshire on 15th July to raise funds for Cancer Research UK. The distance covered, allowing for diversions due to maintenance was just short of 200 miles over 15 days. We followed the tradition of dipping our walking boots into the Irish Sea, picking up a pebble from the beach, and then finally dipping our boots into the North Sea at the end and throwing our pebble into the sea. The customary photoshoot followed, then a celebratory drink in the Wainwright's bar, signing the Coast to Coast register and then heading home.

We were joined by family members and friends on various sections of the walk, including two dogs, which was great for morale and was much appreciated, particularly as some had travelled some distance to walk with us. Fiona's husband Jim and my wife, Ann also provided valuable support throughout.

The Lake District section was the most challenging and rewarding, but the beauty of the Yorkshire Dales, particularly Swaledale and sections of the North Yorkshire Moors were also particularly noteworthy. The weather was mixed with a combination of rain, wind and some sun. One of the best days was probably the 15 mile trek from Patterdale to Shap, past Angle Tarn and over Kidsty Pike, the highest point of the trail at 2,572 ft and then down to the northern shores of Haweswater. However, there were other sunny days too. Luckily there were no physical issues and we came through unscathed! We like to think that our training beforehand was a big factor.

We met some lovely people en route from all over the world who were also doing the C2C, including Australians, New Zealanders, Americans, Italians and so forth and we often came across them on various stages of the walk, when we compared notes and progress.

To date, including Gift Aid, we have raised £2,635 for Cancer Research UK, the original target being £2,000. We are most grateful to all our donors who have contributed. Our fundraising website is still open and will remain so until the end of August. If anyone would still like to make a donation, the link is:

SEDBERGH ART SOCIETY ANNUAL EXHIBITION 2016

Sedbergh School Library
Friday 19th – Monday 29th August
Open every day from 10am – 5pm

The date for our annual exhibition is fast approaching and we are planning now for yet another successful and exciting display of paintings produced by local artists throughout the year. You shall see work produced by participants in the regular Wednesday afternoon sessions and that of the portrait group, which meets on alternate Thursdays.

It will be interesting to detect the influence of artists who led our demonstrations and workshops since our last exhibition. Artists are always eager to learn from others.

Although this exhibition is intended to be a pure celebration of our year's work, some framed pictures will be available for purchase, and also mounted pictures in the 'cradles'.

We are planning another stunning arrangement of cards for sale, many of which will be reproductions of the pictures in the display.

On the desk, amongst other interesting information, there will be copies for you to take of next year's programme of workshops and demonstrations, plus membership forms should you wish to join us.

We received many appreciative and encouraging comments in our visitors' book last year. Come and enjoy perusing our art works in a friendly atmosphere. This is also a rare occasion to be able to enjoy the beautiful and historic Library of Sedbergh School. See you there.

SEDBERGH POST OFFICE

Are the rumours true?

It is hard to believe but it has been nearly three years now since Gaynor and I took over the Post Office after having done nearly 30 years each, teaching in Blackpool and Preston. We felt the time was right for a bit of a change, so we upped sticks and moved for an easier life in the country! However, what we didn't know, was that the Post Office was in the middle of a massive restructuring of the whole network. So in February of this year, we were given the option of either leaving the business altogether (and therefore possibly depriving Sedbergh of its branch), or transform into a "Local Branch". We chose the latter. There then followed many meetings where we argued for Sedbergh to have the closest possible match to the current arrangements, which to all intents and purposes we have succeeded in getting.

Whilst the P.O. was prepared to invest time and money into their side of the business, we decided to take the opportunity to update our, somewhat tired, retail section and invest our own money in a total shop renovation. So, we're having a complete clear out, back to bare walls, nothing is staying! A total transformation. The shop will be very different and provide a much improved shopping experience with the same level of friendly and helpful service you have come to expect. But crucially, the Post Office services will be remain virtually the same. You'll still be able to do all the banking you currently enjoy as well as all the postal services you would expect, including currency. You just won't need to shout as it'll all be open plan!

There is, unfortunately, a temporary downside to this exercise. Because of the extent of the work, we will have to close the shop for two weeks. Therefore our last trading day will be Tuesday 16th August with a re-opening date of Thursday 1st September. We had considered the possibility of running a temporary service somewhere else, but the question of security meant that this was simply not possible. We do, however, hope to open the sorting office for a short while each evening to allow Franked mail to be dropped off and customers to be able to pick up undelivered mail.

We appreciate that having to close is not ideal, but it is necessary for the future viability of the branch and hence the service you now enjoy. We simply cannot complete the refurbishment any other way. The end result, we promise, will be worth the inconvenience. Gaynor and I extend our thanks to you for your understanding and look forward to serving you again in our new and improved surroundings. Thank you and we hope you all have a great summer.

PLEASE REMEMBER:

for the Thandi Project, which was founded by Alan and Chris Clowes of the Cross-Keys. More information will be available on the 28th.

delights on offer, browse the stalls, enjoy the food and play the games. Who could resist trying their luck on the Coconut Shy with Nick wearing a colourful Hawaiian shirt, and a smart bowler hat doing his best imitations of a Cockney Barrow boy? Joel kept the children entertained on the front grass with his circus workshop, a job he clearly enjoys.

As always there are people in the background making these events work and to them go our grateful thanks. For all who donated items, those who prepared, served and cleared food, those who ran the stalls: Roger Bush making our feet tap with his accordion and Rawthey Rhythm (joined for the first time by Sue) for their magic music. Thank you also to the primary school children who painted their best pictures for us to admire in the Art Competition.

Fingers crossed the sun will shine for the summer weddings taking place at St Andrew's. We send our very best wishes to the couples making their vows for their future lives together as man and wife.

Now for an advert.... Inkanyezi Zezulu (Heavenly Stars), an acapella group from South Africa will be giving a concert in church and is not to be missed. Make a note in your diary for Friday 12th August at 7.30pm.

CUMBERLAND CCC

Cumberland play Norfolk in the Unicorns Championship Eastern Division at Sedbergh School in a three day game commencing Sunday 14th August and continuing on Monday and Tuesday.

Hours of play on the first two days are 11am to 7pm and on the third day 11am to 5-30pm whereupon an extra hour can be played.

Scores are available via the Minor Counties Cricket Association website for those wishing to know the state of play.

Cumberland enjoyed a highly successful season in 2015 and won the Championship for the third time in their history.

Their side is captained by Gary Pratt who last season at Sedbergh scored his 11th century for the County in the game against Lincolnshire.

In their last match Cumberland gave a debut to Sam Dutton, a former Sedbergh School pupil and son of former County Captain Simon Dutton.

Our annual visit to Sedbergh is always the highlight of the season and we are grateful to the Head and all the staff, including the wonderful ground staff who make the game possible.

Our visitors from Norfolk are also looking forward to the game and on the second day the Minor Counties President Rear Admiral Roger Moylan-Jones will be joining us for lunch.

YORKSHIRE CRICKET

On Friday June 24th cricketers from Settlebeck School went to Headingley for a day's cricket coaching by Pro Coach Yorkshire funded by the Yorkshire Ridings Society. The group enjoyed the coaching and a visit both to the Yorkshire CCC Museum and a look round the Headingley cricket and rugby grounds. This was a continuation of a coaching project which has previously seen Pro Coach Yorkshire visit Dent Primary School and also use Sedbergh School's facilities to coach juniors from Sedbergh CC. This was the first time Settlebeck School have directly accessed the coaching and it was so successful that it was immediately agreed they would return to Headingley in 2017.

HOWGILL DUCK RACE

A big, big 'thank you' to everybody who supported our Duck Race on Monday May 30th. The weather was kind to us and the ducks swam well considering there wasn't much water in the beck. A massive £950 was raised which will be spent on the planned improvements to the Village Hall. The evening is always good fun, enjoyed by young and old alike and your contribution towards both the evening and the fundraising are very much appreciated. Thank you.

It is likely that there has been a mill on the site since the 13th century, with the current mill having been built around 1750 during a period of peace, prosperity and population growth in the Eden Valley and prior to a run of poor harvests and the start of the Napoleonic Wars in 1793.

The original 18th century mill was much smaller than it is today, being one of several mills in the area each serving their immediate local community. However, this all changed in the 1870's with the building of the Settle – Carlisle railway and the enterprising millers deciding to produce more flour and using the railway to send their goods to Leeds and Glasgow.

The current mill is operated by two waterwheels, and these were installed in 1915 and represented a significant financial investment (about £100,000 in today's money). They were cast in iron sections by B. Henry of Aberdeen and then brought down by rail and assembled on site. Both wheels are what is known as overshot wheels, with water flowing in at the top and then running into a tail race and back into the stream. The millrace takes the water from Sunnycill Beck at a weir situated half a mile from the mill itself.

The mill uses "French burr" millstones from Chalons in Northern France, composed of pieces of freshwater quartz. They are very hard wearing and resist cracking and breaking up. The millstones are of a ridge and furrow design and generally only require re-dressing every 2 years.

These stones are enclosed in a hexagonal box, called a tun, above which is a hopper for the grain. The grain flows down from the bottom of this hopper into an angled wooden 'shoe' and the 'millers damsel' then agitates the shoe to ensure a steady and even feed into the eye of the runner stone. The grain is then forced outwards between the two stones and nothing is taken away – whole grain goes in and wholegrain flour comes out.

Today the mill produces a wide range of stoneground flours and, whereas modern milling utilises high speed rollers to separate the different parts of the wheat grain including the wheat germ, which is full of natural oils and vitamins, in stone grinding the wheat germ oils are mixed through all the flour giving it its nutty flavour and improved nutritional value.

The mill currently produces 1 – 2 tonnes of flour each week, that is eighty 25 kilo (56 lb.) sacks and it takes between 20 – 30 minutes to grind each sack of flour. Over half of the production is used within Cumbria, with customers including artisan bakeries, hotels, guest houses, restaurants, specialist shops and home bakers.

Having concluded the tour members then retired to the mill café where they enjoyed the organic vegetarian fare that was on offer with the opportunity to purchase a range of the stoneground flour produced by the mill.

CITIZENS ADVICE BUREAU

Too good to be true? - be aware of scams.

If something seems too good to be true, it probably is just that. Citizens Advice estimates that UK consumers lose £5 billion every year to scammers - criminals who play on people's dreams, and their trust, to trick them into handing over money. One in every ten people has been a victim. Don't be the next one - be scam aware, get advice and check before you hand over cash.

There is a huge variety of ways you can be conned out of your money, by mail, phone or online. Bogus agencies offering you a dream partner or job, pensions and investment schemes promising you untold riches, fake tickets, claims that you have won a prize ... they all ask you to hand over money in advance. Some scams pretend to be from your bank or computer operator, asking for passwords. What can you do about all this? Be scam aware, take your time, check things out. The Citizens Advice website (www.citizensadvice.org.uk) has lots of detailed information on scams.

Free, confidential advice and help is available from South Lakes Citizens Advice on any aspect of debt, consumer problems, benefits, housing, employment or any other problems. We have various outlets across South Lakeland and can also give advice over the phone – telephone 015394 46464 for an appointment and help. South Lakes Citizens Advice is a registered charity,

HAPPY BIRTHDAY 'ON A ROLL!'

On the 26 August this year it will be five years since I opened 'On a Roll' on Sedbergh Main Street. The shop was an entirely new venture for me and to set up a small business in a new place has been exciting and rewarding, although not without its challenges!

Since I opened the shop Sedbergh has seen many changes, most notably the closure of all three banks and the relocation of the Spar store, all of which have had (in my opinion)
a big impact on the foot fall in town, so I am immensely proud that 'On a Roll' is still going strong, in what has proved to be at times a tough place to run a small business.

The support I have had from so many of you in Sedbergh and the wider area since I opened has always been greatly appreciated and I would like to take this opportunity to say a HUGE thank you to you all for your custom and for the friendships I've made over the last five years.

Of course I also could not have done this without the tremendous support of my husband Simon and my family, namely my sister Deborah,
my Mother in Law Kath, my Mum Anne and my sister in Law Liz; all of whom have done so much to help me along the way, especially since Stanley's arrival (who at the age of 1

Thank you also to Kim Cragg for all her hard work over the last year and to the latest member of the team, Bryony Leddy, who started working for me in May.

To celebrate the occasion and to show my thanks all baguettes will be 'buy one get one free' on Friday 26th August to all customers throughout the day.

It would be great to see as many faces as possible popping in to see me that day, whether to buy or just to say hello! So thanks again everyone and here's to the next five years!

neighbourhood alert

With summer holidays fast approaching, individuals are often more exposed to travel booking frauds when looking for last minute package deals / cheap flights. Whether paying upfront for a family holiday or simply booking a flight, payments are transferred only to discover that the holiday / airline ticket does not exist and was sold to you by a bogus travel company. Fraudsters will often lure in potential customers with low prices and 'one time only' offers that are simply too good to pass up, requesting payment by the preferred method of direct bank transfer.

Avoid

Paying for a holiday / airline tickets / accommodation via direct bank transfer. No reputable company will ever request payment via this method.

Responding to unsolicited calls, texts or emails offering holidays at incredibly low prices.

Protect Yourself

- Whenever possible, pay for your holiday by credit card as it offers increased protection.
- Always remember to look for the 'https' and locked padlock icon in the address bar before entering your payment details.
- Never feel pressured to make a booking for fear that you will miss out on this 'low price' opportunity. If you have never used the company before, take your time to do some online research to ensure they are reputable.
- Should you make a flight or hotel booking through a travel company, feel free to separately

We ban first time drink drivers, so why aren't we banning drivers using mobiles?

The dangers of driving while distracted by using a phone involved Hand held mobile phone

- Drivers' reaction times are 50% slower than under normal driving conditions.
 - Drivers using hand held mobile phones are worse at maintaining speed and maintaining distance with the vehicle in front (longitudinal control) than drunk drivers
 - Drivers' using hand-held mobile phone missed significantly more road warning signs than when drunk.
- Direct Line commissioned the Transport Research Laboratory (TRL) to research and quantify the dangers of using a mobile phone when driving. The TRL driving simulator was used by an experienced group of twenty males and females between the ages of 21 and 45. (2002).

Hands free (not risk free) mobile phone

- Drivers' reaction times are 30% slower than drink drivers.
- Drivers' concentration levels are reduced for as much as 10 minutes after a conversation whilst driving. Direct Line commissioned TRL to undertake extensive research on the dangers of using a mobile phone when driving. The TRL driving simulator was used by an experienced group of twenty males and females between the ages of 21 – 45. (2007)

Texting is even worse

- Steering control deteriorated by as much as 91%.
 - Reaction time decreased by 35% - almost 3 times that of drink drivers.
- RAC Foundation commissioned TRL to study the impairment caused by texting whilst driving. A CarSIM was used by 17 young drivers aged between 18 – 24. (2008).

Current penalties

- £60 and 3 penalty points although unsafe drivers can be charged with careless or dangerous driving if the driving is considered particularly unsafe.

SEDBERGH ALLOTMENTS ASSOCIATION

Sedbergh Allotments Association's site at Birks Lane was developed in 2009 and has proven very successful with all plots producing good crops of vegetables and fruit. The boundary hedges are now well established and the appearance of the site attracts favourable comment from both residents and visitors.

There are now 27 plots of varying sizes with a mains water supply. The Association is committed to organic methods of cultivation, as far as is reasonably practicable and, through its affiliation to the National Society of Allotment & Leisure Gardeners, members may purchase seeds and gardening products at discounted prices.

Membership of the Association is open to all persons having a property address within the LA10 5 postal district. Whilst all plots are presently allocated, the waiting list is now short so, if you are keen to grow your own produce and would be interested in a plot if one becomes available, don't delay get your name down now!

parks, it will run out at the end of August so if you want to carry on using the car parks without buying tickets all the time you will need a new permit.

Once again, we are selling the permits on behalf of Sedbergh Parish Council. We are open every day: 10 am to 4 pm from Monday to Saturday and noon to 4pm on Sunday. You will need to know your vehicle's registration number, and you will need cash or a cheque to pay for the permit (I'm afraid we don't take cards for these payments). If it's for your business, we can do a VAT receipt, please ask.

The price has gone up a little this year: it will be £40 for the daytime permit, and £60 for the 24 hour one (if you regularly park overnight on one of the car parks, this is the permit you need). We will have the permits for sale well before the old ones run out – when we have the permits, we will put posters up round town and mention it on the Sedbergh Market Town Facebook page.

SIGHT ADVICE SOUTH LAKES

The Sedbergh Branch of SASL met on Tuesday 19th at 'Malabar' at Garths Farm to experience the lovely Afternoon Tea hosted by Fiona & Graham Lappin and dog Pluto.

Dennis welcomed everyone which included Gladys on her first visit, Florence on her second visit along with Keith & Jennifer, Jenny & Jenny, Rosemary, Elspeth, May, Mary & Edward and Susan. There were a few missing due to other engagements so we hope to see them back soon.

Susan gave a resume of the Meeting that she had attended with Rosemary in Kendal.

We then tucked into the Afternoon Tea with plates and plates and plates coming out and enough tea to sink a battleship.

Sue had brought along a quiz to keep the grey matter ticking over and was based on 'Animals'. We were split into two teams appropriately named Aardvark and Baboons with the former winning by a cats whisker. Afterwards, Dennis presented Fiona and Graham with a thank you gift for looking after us so well.

If anyone would like to attend any of the Meetings which are between 2 & 4pm on the third Tuesday of the month, please contact Susan on 20613. Transport can be provided.

SEDBERGH SONGSTERS

The Sedbergh Songsters have continued meeting throughout the summer in Gladstone House in Sedbergh - with some very fine singing of old songs which the singers remember from the 1940's, 50's and 60's such as How do you do what you do to me? Love me Tender, and Que Sera Sera - as well as folk songs which they sang at school including The Sally Gardens, the Ash Grove and Men of Harlech.

We have a terrific time singing, with words provided to help jog the memory, and copious refreshments of tea and biscuits (and occasionally cake) - but are now having a break during the school holidays until the first Monday in September. As always you are all most welcome to join us - but until then: "We're all going on a summer holiday, no more working for a week or two, fun and laughter on our summer holiday, no more worries for me or you, for a week or two."

to where they are needed and are accounted for.

- Jim Bolton is an example of a volunteer who has got himself trained for a particular task - in this case splicing fibre.
- Jock Cairns will be in a position to give answers to digging teams when they need to be sure existing underground utilities are not in danger of being damaged.

3) A new work claims system has been agreed with B4RN whereby payment to landowners for work is made by a simple and, as they say, transparent procedure. There has to be maximum understanding and trust when it comes to work done and payment made.

ducting into the ground, B4RN installs the fibre and runs the service. There is no doubt that B4RN is financially solid with assets and income based on the 41 networks thus far successfully created. The B4RN broadband speed offered is well known; in addition, the track record of B4RN in customer service is all you could wish. A few days ago they solved a problem (few arise) the same day. The team is in Melling! At the same time a Dentdale resident waited over a week to be reconnected by BT. Incidentally Barry Forde, the B4RN founder and chief executive recently received an MBE for services to rural broadband.

So work is really underway, and the arrival of fibre in Dent School at the end of August should be an event worth celebrating. This is a community effort, not a commercial one as was the previous scheme, so interest, support and volunteers of all sorts are the life blood. If you think you might help in any way, enquire a bit by ringing 015396 25321 and you will be very much welcomed. And if you are wondering how, over the coming year, you sign up for the Thanks are due not only to the recitalists for the time and work so generously committed, but also to others involved in the preparation and presentation of the evenings, including the opportunity for conversation and friendship over light refreshments after each performance.

Donations were sent to Christian Aid from the first event and to Cancer Relief UK from the second. In total the amount raised from both recitals was £ 348 – 79.

Deryck's varied programme included pieces by Zipoli, JS Bach, Haydn and John Stanley. His playing reflected the sensitivity, professionalism, humour and love of the instrument and its music which we associate with Deryck. Also included in the evening were informative short spoken introductions to the nature of Chorale Preludes by Stuart Manger, and of mechanical musical clocks, by Richard Thomas.

Roger's programme was equally varied and lively, including pieces by Burtonwood, Fauré, Young, Knevel, von Paradis, Ratcliffe and Dubois. While most of these names were perhaps generally less familiar, the programme was no less entertaining and Roger's skill, sensitivity, sense of fun and interpretations were warmly received.

We are very fortunate to have people of such talent in our community.

Of course the events would not have been possible without the third fundamental personality involved, the organ itself. In general terms a pipe organ is amazing in its own right for the tremendous range and versatility it offers to the organist and the listener. It is in some ways rather like a steam engine, it breathes, lives and seems to have a soul of its own which communicates with an audience or congregation, when partnered with a musician of sensitivity who not only has ability but also respect and affection for the instrument.

I am indebted to Richard Thomas for the following information about the organ at the Methodist Church;-

In the mid 1920s, as a result of a generous bequest from Mr. William Handley of Garsdale Foot, the Trustees were able to provide a new organ for the Chapel and following long and careful negotiations the contract for the provision of the instrument was given to Messrs. Brindley and Company of Sheffield. The work was completed in October 1925 at a total cost of £950. The new organ was opened on 19th November 1925 by Revd. Albert H. Walker of Manchester and the opening recital on the instrument was

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT HISTORY SOCIETY

Local History Exhibition

This exhibition aims to share members' interests and research. Members' researches may highlight particular people and activities but they also pay tribute to all the people: both those who stayed in the dales and those who moved on to wider horizons. Today, many people come from all over the world to consult the society archives, as they put together their family stories. Each story throws more light onto our collective history.

We can still see traces of the earliest settlers, the Celtic tribes who named Dent and some of our hills and rivers, and the Norse language that survives in many farm names. Mills, quarries, railways and the remains of other structures reveal our industrial heritage, and together with roads and tracks, show the ebb and flow of economic life. Documents, and more recently photographs, illustrate the lives of the people.

Our exhibition offers small glimpses of past worlds. It does not tell the whole story, or offer a chronological history lesson, but it provides snapshots that remind us that time does not stand still. The clocks tick here just as in other cities and towns around the world.

The society hopes that everyone will find something of interest in this exhibition. The archive is available for you to look through or for your own research. The displays may be adapted to suit each venue.

We would like to thank all the people, too numerous to mention individually, who have helped to make this exhibition possible.

throat pouches with insects, the parent swifts may have been feeding chicks less frequently and this is known to delay their development. This means that instead of fledging towards the last week of July, it could be into August before they leave the nest.

The weather in the first weeks of July was dreadful, wet and cold, and very little swift activity was seen. In such conditions breeding swifts have to forage further afield to catch insects, so we see them less often, and indeed the non-breeders, who have no chicks to feed, can stay away until the weather improves. As a result of finding it harder to fill their

Fortunately the weather improved and from mid-July we again had some of the most spectacular swift activity we have ever seen – in both numbers swooping in the skies and in screaming parties hurtling at top speed around the houses. too were experiencing amazing swift days.

In their final 10 days in the nest the chicks peer out of their nest site, gazing at the strange new world they will soon launch themselves into.

The picture shows a chick peering out of a nest brick at our cottage in Lowgill.

At this stage they also perform vigorous press-ups, to strengthen their wings ready for that crucial maiden flight. The chicks then do not return to the nest and are fully independent of their parents, feeding and drinking on their own. They join other swifts in the air to fly around for barely one to two weeks before they all embark on the long 7,000 mile trip to Africa.

It is very exciting to report a success at the People's Hall gym - swifts are roosting in at least two of the internal nest bricks. They go in late in the evening, around 9 – 10pm, and stay in for the night. This is typical behaviour of a newly formed pair, that are not yet old enough to breed, but are very likely to breed at the same site next year. Swifts have been seen entering, and staying in, all four of the bricks but at this stage we are not sure if they have all been occupied overnight. This is a wonderful result for the first year, and more than we could have hoped for. It is also fascinating to see how, when the attraction calls play, parties of swifts are attracted to swoop past close to the bricks.

Also exciting is the news that swifts were seen flying up to the boxes in the louvres of St Andrew's church tower and even clinging on to the stonework briefly. They targeted the right-hand side of the west-facing louvres, exactly where the boxes are and the attraction calls are broadcast from. This is a very encouraging sign and let us hope it this will be followed

We are also able to confirm that swifts have continued to roost in two of the boxes at Settlebeck School, another great result, giving hope of breeding next year.

As I write this in July, the swifts are still with us, delighting us with their aerial acrobatics - they remind us of noisy teenagers as they hurtle around in screaming parties. Truly magical birds.

KILLINGTON HYDRO PROJECT

A Six Year Struggle is Over

It is now over six years since the Killington and District Sustainable Energy Trust embarked on its first major project. K-SET was set up by a small group of people in Killington, population 160, with the aim of reducing their carbon footprint. The village might be small, but had big ideas and they believed that they could show other small communities in Cumbria that they could all play a part in countering global warming.

A survey showed that their carbon footprint was unusually high. It was 11.45kT per annum. This compares with the average for South Lakeland of 9.5kT. The average for the country as a whole is even lower at 6.7kT.

Like many of the villages in Cumbria the residents have to travel many miles to school, to work, to shop or to the hospital and every farm has to have at least one tractor.

The answer to being able to lower the carbon footprint of the village seemed to be to use water power from a weir at Broad Raine on the River Lune which runs along the boundary of the Parish. Helped by Lancaster University, K-SET produced a Feasibility Study in 2010 that showed an Archimedes screw type turbine on the weir would produce enough electricity for at least half the houses in the village. The electricity would not go direct to the houses, which are very scattered but into the grid and the income from the power company and from the Feed-in-Tariff would be available for projects in the village. Most of the houses in the village are not only stone-built, with no damp-proof course and no cavity walls, but they were built over 200 years ago, before 1800. Only a very few have been built since then, although many of the old barns have now been converted to houses. The houses needed to be insulated and their power needs reduced.

Broad Raine weir is of particular interest to the fishermen. There used to be far more salmon moving upstream in the autumn and many people walking along the public footpath beside the weir would stop to watch the salmon trying to leap up the concrete barrier, which is why a fish pass was built in the last century. At the top of the fish-pass there is a fish trap, used by the Middleton Hatchery Group to capture the spawning salmon, extract their eggs and grow them on so they could be put back into the upper reaches of the river. This increased the chances of the salmon reproducing and living to migrate down-stream and across the Atlantic before returning to spawn many years later.

Building the hydro involved long negotiations with the Lune and Wyre Fishing Association as well as the Lune Rivers Trust to ensure that the hydro scheme would not damage the wild life. It was not easy to persuade the fishermen that fish, even large fish can go down the screw completely unharmed, like going down in a water lift. The Middleton Hatchery Group whose work we strongly support has been most helpful and supportive throughout the long process of getting the Environment Agency Licences, the right of way to the site, the planning permission (which was approved unanimously by the Planning Committee), and the grid connection. Unfortunately, all this has taken time so that the income from the Feed-in-Tariff is now very much less than it would have been when we started.

To pay for the various studies, such as the Ecological study by Bowland Ecology and the Arboreal study by BHA Trees Ltd as well as the drawings, the permissions and the licences, we were helped by personal donations and loans, as well as grants from Cumbria County Council, the Local Area Partnership, Sedbergh Parish Council, the Cumbria Community Foundation and the Craven Trust. The purchase of the site from the EA was possible because of financial support from Energy4All, a not-for-profit organisation based in Barrow, that helps community groups. They also organised a share offer which raised £440,000 in just a few weeks last October.

Now at last all the hurdles have been overcome. The screw has been ordered from Spaans Babcock, an Anglo-Dutch firm, and the civil engineering will be undertaken by Askam's of Lancaster. The work is about to start so that in-river work can be completed before the end of September when the salmon start running, and weather permitting it is hoped the screw will be in place and commissioned by the New Year. A village of 160 people will have installed a 35kW screw turbine to

The ten members who went on the Society's last visit of 2016 spent a fascinating and rewarding afternoon at Dalemain Mansion and Gardens. We began our tour of the house at the front door where we were met by Judith, our guide. As we stood in the entrance hall at the bottom of the beautiful cantilevered staircase surrounded by family portraits she told us about the history of the building and its occupants. The name 'Dalemain' means 'manor in the valley'. Surprisingly, it had been in the possession of only three families since the first structure on the site, a defensive peel tower which had been erected in the eleventh century.. Since that time various alterations and additions had been made until the impressive Georgian facade that can be seen today was added in 1744.

Dalemain is still a family home and the present occupants are very much 'hands on' in the running of the house and estate. A substantial part of the house is open to the public and Judith began her tour by taking us through several grand rooms at the front of the building. The Chinese room, so named because of its beautiful original wallpaper and the splendid dining room were full of antique furniture (including some fine examples from the local Gillow firm), a wealth of ceramics and many family portraits.

An interesting feature of the house tour was the way in which it incorporated different periods of Dalemain's development. As we moved from the front to the back of the house by way of the small Westmorland and Cumberland Yeomanry Museum we entered a maze of old passages, staircases and rooms some of which contained a variety of artefacts including an interesting collection of toys. In particular, we were shown a small room, currently used as a bedroom which boasted a magnificent plaster ceiling dating from the Tudor period.

Thanks must be given to Judith for her full and informative introduction to the house which was followed by the opportunity to explore the garden on our own. The majority of this is situated not in the front of the building but to the side of it. Nothing could have prepared me for its magnificent design and planting. It is easy to see why it was given a national award in 2013. The variety of perennial plants was huge and the selection of old fashioned roses was very extensive.

Lastly we enjoyed a scrumptious tea in the café where we were told that all the goodies on sale had been produced by one of the ladies who were serving us. We were also most impressed by another café employee who gave us an ad hoc history of the room in which we were sitting! It would be invidious not to mention the helpful staff in the shop where there are many examples (for tasting) of the different types of marmalade which had been entered in the annual competition for which Dalemain is justly famed.

Altogether, a very worthwhile and enjoyable afternoon. Julie Leigh

NATIONAL PARK NOTES

At the moment, the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority is a bit like an iceberg. On the surface everything seems like business as usual – but below the waterline there is a great deal going on! This is largely to do with the fact that in a fortnight's time (as I write this) on the 1st August the Park will be extended by a further 161 square miles to make it the second largest National Park in England (after the Lake District) at a total area of 841 square miles. Even though the name remains the same – the Yorkshire Dales – 28% of the Park will now be in Cumbria and 1% in Lancashire. As I am at present the Parish representative on the Authority for the Cumbrian part (currently Sedbergh, Dent and Garsdale) I have been asked to take on responsibility for the whole of the new area which takes me from just three parishes to twenty nine. No pressure then....! On the 1st August itself there will be a celebration at Orton where local people, councillors, stakeholders and partners are invited to mark what is effectively the end of a sixty year journey to bring these new areas into the Park and into the National Park family in this country.

There is clearly a great deal to be done by all officers and members of the Authority and one matter of importance was to introduce everyone to the extension area through the means of a series of guided walks over the last month or so. Some members and officers living over Grassington way, for example, have never visited the Westmorland Fells. Although I have walked over the area myself quite a lot in the past years I was pleased to join others for an orientation walk on Little Asby Common and on another day a walk from Barbon over towards Bullpot. Everyone was very impressed by the beauty of the scenery and agreed that it provided a wonderful addition to the existing Park.

Sedbergh will, of course, remain the largest settlement in the Park and I have recently been chairing a series of meetings between local organisations and National Park officers to see what further benefits might accrue to the town as a result of the enlargement. At the least we would hope to see an extension of the tourist information that we already supply with a National Park Information Service in a shape or form yet to be decided. More on this in due course. We would certainly hope to see an increase in tourism generally and cycle tourism in particular which has been given a great boost by the Tour de France a couple of years ago and the annual Tour of Yorkshire – with consequent benefits to our local economy.

of the Authority I was delighted and honoured to be elected Deputy-Chairman of the Authority for the forthcoming year. I am expecting this to be an interesting and challenging role and I am very much looking forward to working with and supporting our new Chairman Mr Carl Lis who was elected at the same meeting. I carried out my first official engagement yesterday (Sunday 17th July) when I attended the dedication of a recently erected War Memorial in Hawes aiming to commemorate the fallen of Hawes and High Abbotside in both World Wars. The ceremony was an extremely moving one and ended by the Bishop of Ripon blessing the Memorial with the aid of all the children present who were asked to come forward to place their hands on the memorial as a living connection between the children and young people of today and those members of the community who died in one of these two wars. The Last Post and then Reveille were sounded by a bugler from Catterick Garrison.

Please don't hesitate to contact me on any matter to do with the National Park either at ianmcperson24@hotmail.com or on Sedbergh 20648. Best wishes.

conversions

More barns are to be converted into homes for local people in the Yorkshire Dales National Park after four schemes were given the thumbs up by planners.

Members of the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority's Planning Committee decided to approve the applications subject to conditions.

They were at West Witton, Austwick, Otterburn and permission was also given to convert the former Deepdale Methodist Chapel near Dent into a local occupancy home.

Robert Heseltine, the Authority's Member Champion for Development Management, said: "Part of our vision for the National Park is that it should be home to strong, self-reliant and balanced communities, with good access to the services they need.

"The National Park Authority is committed to increasing the stock of much-needed local occupancy homes. The conversion of roadside barns is a vital element of our new Yorkshire Dales Local Plan, which sets out our planning strategy for the next 15 years.

"Without a local occupancy stipulation these barn conversions could well end up being sold on the open market for second homes at the expense of keeping local communities together."

Mr Lis, who was awarded an OBE in the 2009 New Years Honours for his services to the communities of North Yorkshire, said: "I am pleased that the members have shown their trust in me again by electing me as chairman.

Firewood for sale

This Team Leaves It Clean

FAMILY MUSINGS

Today is so hot I need my favourite Cornish Beach and the lapping sea although I once got sunstroke on that beach and insisted the land just visible on the horizon was north Africa and the sea was the "Med" so maybe not do that again. I was put to bed covered in lashings of sun cream after a cold shower and a large bottle of water. I missed two days of my holiday as I was rather ill, so take care folks.

Life seems full but as most things are enjoyable that's ok, we are getting ready for two major events we are involved in, the Christian Festival and local Gala, along with gardening and baking and all the usual stuff and looking after grandchildren. Every day there are raspberries strawberries and blackcurrants to pick and the two grapevines are earning their keep. Rather too much of the garden is wild but never mind the children enjoy themselves without anyone worrying about anything being damaged. They were thrilled to find a baby bunny one day and even hubby did a double-take.. no not a real one!

Some girl friends and I are off for Afternoon Tea later this week at a really lovely venue, 5 of us so there will be some chattering amongst the dainty sandwiches and cakes. Will it be as good as where we went for Auntie's 98th birthday, I will let you know. Someone, seeing me at home last week and not in Hull said "Oh you're here, are you staying long?" Now, were they being sarcy or funny or do they think I live in Hull? I certainly feel I have a parallel life over there with friends and invitations to visit and take part in things, but Dent is my home. I wrote a poem about it at school, along these lines "I come from Dent where the houses are bent, the people are old and in winter it is cold, but I would not swop my home in Dent for anywhere else I could be sent". And I still say that even if I am heading to be one of the "old" people! Stay young in attitude folks.

AUGUST GARDENING

I have two old honeysuckle (Lonicera periclymenum) plants in the garden. One of them, 'Belgica' (often known as "Early Dutch honeysuckle") was looking so scruffy last summer, that I gave it a good going over with the secateurs, cut out the oldest twiggy stems, and left a few of the new, long, flexible shoots, which I tied in to the fence. It rewarded me this May and June with the best crop of flowers in years.

I now have my eye on the second bush Lonicera periclymenum 'Serotina' ("Late Dutch") which came in to flower in July and is still blooming – but in a rather bitty way on shabby stems. A good, rejuvenating prune is obviously required here too, and I shall do this as soon as flowering is over.

'Belgica' and 'Serotina' both have highly fragrant, tubular flowers, apricot yellow on the inside and dark peachy pink on the outside. A little further along the fence, another cultivar, L. p. 'Graham Stuart Thomas' has creamy yellow flowers, also with a good perfume. This one is very similar to the wild honeysuckle found in the hedgerows around and about our roads. I notice that some plants of that flower quite late in the summer and wonder if this is to do with winter hedge trimming. This winter I plan to cut part of the plant hard back to see if it can be induced to produce a succession of flowers.

I find all three easy to grow and they thrive here with their roots in part shade, but their heads in the sun. They are usually trouble free, but will succumb to mildew if their roots get too dry and warm. This can distort foliage and flowers and cause leaves to fall prematurely, leaving bare stems with a sprig of leaves at their tips. Damage is not permanent but will occur year after year so if this happens, the best solution is to move the whole plant to a cooler, moister place where it can grow away in profusion.

JUNE WEATHER

It's official!! It was the wettest June on record!! It was certainly mine with a total of 14 inches (350.5mm)!! In spite of that we did have some dry days. We had five at the start of the month and a further 4 in the 3rd week plus a few odd ones on the way. It was that we had some really torrential downpours. One morning we had almost 2 ½ inches in a very short time. The folk in Kendal and elsewhere, who had been flooded previously, must have had their hearts in their mouths. In spite of this we did have some typical June sunshine and a high of 75F(24C) but we also had a low of 39.7F(4.5C). That night the wind chill dropped below freezing at 28F(-2C)!! A breezy month with a maximum gust of 19.9 mph. During the first half of the month we had 10 days when the wind was not in the North West. These happened to be the warmer days.

This warm wet weather was good for grass growth but not for getting hay. I have had to resort to cutting branches from our hedges to feed to the tups to supplement their grass as they are eating it as quickly as it grows.

The swallow got a clutch going again with his new mate. Let's hope they are more successful this time! There seems to be fewer swallows about this year and I've only seen the odd swift and house martin around here. I haven't seen any sand martins at all. I haven't seen any bats this year and very few butterflies, only the odd white and orange tip. The bees are progressing steadily and some syrup has boosted the swarm I received. I have planted out several trays of bee friendly plants. It will be interesting to see what appears. At the moment there seems to be quite a bit of grass amongst it. We shall see what they turn into! The rabbits are still giving the dogs some sport. It is only a matter of time before they catch one. I've had one tup fly struck. Fortunately, if flystrike can ever be fortunate, it is not around his back end but on his sweaty bits so easier to treat. In spite of spraying them daily this warm moist weather has produced a lot of flies. I kill several cleggs on me every time I go near the sheep even though I spray myself first. They must think I am good meat or blood!!

PEOPLE'S HALL NEWS

A dishwasher has landed

Many of the Hall users have become used to having dishwashers at home and have been nagging the Hall to get one too. Well we have one in progress of being fitted. We are grateful to the Roger Stott Community Grants of the Yorkshire Dales Millennium Trust for funding this acquisition.

The winner/ runner up in each category to receive £50/£25
'Best in Show' £100.

The Trustees of the People's Hall in collaboration with the Sedbergh Parish Council are proposing to improve the frontage and access to the Hall and to revamp the shared car park. Plans are in progress. It is intended to split the work into two parts as it allows the People's Hall as a charity and the Parish Council, who are a statutory body, to apply to different funding bodies. As the appearance of the Hall building has been transformed over the last three years it is only fitting to match this by improving the setting. Prospective tenderers should contact Dr Barney (20790) or the Parish Clerk (07966 134554).

60th Birthday plans

The Committee is progressing the arrangements to celebrate the Hall's Diamond Jubilee on 24 November 2016. Sandra Gold-Wood our Vice Chair is coordinating the programme. Ideas and suggestions to her please (21808)

FINALLY

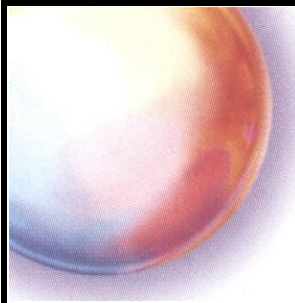

Just to add a sour note THE PEOPLE'S HALL STILL NEEDS A TREASURER

The work over a month occupies about 3/4 hours in dribs and drabs – I know because I am Acting Up at the moment. We can't carry on much longer like this and I certainly have lots to do! Help.

Dr Gina Barney, 20790

WANTED

Copy of small but interesting book originally bought about 2006 from St. Andrews, Sedbergh. The book has drawings of churches in Sedbergh and Dent areas proceeding the history of that church. Although bought in St. Andrews, Sedbergh this book could have been sold from any of the other churches. As I am away several days at a time with uncertain planning at the moment please would it be possible, if a copy of this book is found, for me to buy/collect it from Sedbergh Information Centre at 72 Main Street. EDITORS COMMENTS

Well, the perfect Lookaround will never be produced but we have a good try.

Last month, the Settlebeck Report managed to morph last years report onto the back. One of the mysteries of Newsletters but on checking the original information from the School, it was sent correctly. Another one for Arthur C Clark methinks!!!

I also omitted an Advert for the Quiet Day on 22nd July at St Marks Church, Cautley. Sorry.

One new Advertiser this month with Gleam Clean. Please mention Lookaround if you make any enquiries.

LOOKAROUND INFORMATION

The Sedbergh & District Lookaround is edited, published & distributed monthly by Dennis & Jacky Whicker & is printed by Stramongate Press. The content of The Lookaround does not reflect the views of the Editors.

Whilst every effort is made to ensure that information is correct, the Editors cannot accept any responsibility for any inconvenience caused through errors or omissions.

Copies are available from Sedbergh Information Centre, Sedbergh Mini Market, Post Office, Spar, Dent Stores & Barbon & by Post (please enquire).

All items for Lookaround must be sent to the Sedbergh Information Centre at 72 Main Street, Sedbergh or deposited in the Lookaround Post Box there or sent to editor@sedberghlookaround.org.uk

ADVERTISING

For the benefit of advertisers, the following information will assist you.

If you wish to place an Advert in Lookaround, please include the correct money or cheque with the details & place it in the Post Box. A receipt will be issued & left in the Lookaround Tray in the Office for collection or include a SAE.

Our distribution area is the LA10 Postal District which is Sedbergh & the surrounding villages, but it is sent all round the country & the world.

We are published on the 1st of every month (except January).

February to November is printed black ink on white. The December/January issue is in full colour. All copies have a full colour cover to indicate a new issue & photographs are requested from our readers who will be credited.

We do not have whole page adverts but will allow two half page adverts opposite each other.

The Front Page is given priority to Event Adverts relevant for the appropriate month.

You can supply the information & we can create an advert for you. You can supply an example in hard copy & we will reproduce it (please mention if a particular Font is required). You can supply an original using Microsoft Publisher, a Word, a jpg or as a PDF.

If you order numerous adverts, the content can be the same every month or it can change if you are seasonal.

The closing date for new Adverts is 15th of every month. Renewed adverts & articles are 19th of every month.

Advertising rates have been updated: December 1991, December 1995, March 1997 & August 1999. (over 16 years ago.)

PERSONAL MESSAGES

These are £1 each & are for sending Good Wishes, Thank You's, Birthday Greetings, Anniversaries & any other celebration or congratulation. You may also sell personal items - not on a business basis, & also make an appeal for wanted items.

Details with respect to people Passing Away are inserted for free.

Please submit legible writing as many mistakes have been made in the past due to not being able to read properly.

All else by 19th of every month
Last Price Update August 1999.

GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Any organisation that charges an admission, sells items or requires a donation from the public for anything at their event & wishes to include details in The Lookaround, are requested to place an Advert with us. This can be supported by text which cannot all be included in the advert. Any report after the Event is free. The request for payment for an Advert is to assist with financing The Lookaround which has a large printing expense every month. We feel that the Advertising Rates are very reasonable. All Adverts for Events automatically have the details entered into the Diary Page at the rear of The Lookaround. If organisations do not wish to Advertise with us, details of the Event will still appear on the Diary Page, but no text will be inserted.

BUSINESSES

Adverts for the Rent or Sale of property are not Personals & can only be included as a boxed Advert.

If you are a new advertiser in Lookaround & you order 3 or more adverts, you will receive one free advert & can also include some text explaining who you are, what you are, where you are, etc (which can not all go into an advert) up to about 550 words for free.

If you have more than 3 months of advertising, we will automatically send a renewal reminder should you wish to continue. If you order 10 months, we give you one free (making one whole year).

We respectfully request payment with ordering. Please make cheques payable to "Sedbergh & District Lookaround".

Payments by BACS can also be made.
Account: Lookaround
Account Number: 30940267
Code: 20-45-28
Reference: Invoice Number or your name or reference.

CAN YOU PLEASE INCLUDE THE INVOICE NUMBER WHEN PAYING BY BACS?

Any receipts issued for Adverts will be left in the Lookaround Tray in the Information Centre for collection.

CHILDREN'S BIRTHDAYS

Children's Birthdays are included free on the Birthday page until their 11th Birthday.

Every month, a randomly selected child will receive a £10 Gift Voucher to be used in Sedbergh or Dent from Lookaround who will receive it by post. For this reason, we require the postal address of each child. If we have no address, they are unable to receive it.

If anyone or any business would like to Sponsor the Birthday Gift, please contact us. Full credit will be given.
